STANLEY'S RODEO ROUND-UP "RIDES" 25

Twenty-five men, women and children were rounded up Friday night by Sheriff A. E. Stanley of New Madrid County at the notorious Rodeo, near LaForge, loaded into a truck and carted to jail or before a justice in New Madrid. One member of the party is said to have been a prominent Sikeston business man.

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE FOR SPARE TIME WORK

Exceptional Opportunity for Ambitious Men and Women—Whole or Part Time May Be Devoted to Effort

Sikeston Standard Guarantees Weekly Pay to All Who Will Work—You Can Earn from $5 to $120 Per Week—Start Now!

The Twice-a-Week Sikeston Standard, wanting to do its part in promoting the return of prosperity, today offers the men and women of Sikeston and surrounding districts, big pay every week in exchange for their spare time. The plan is an entirey new idea, yet a simple one, for it not only gives men and women a weekly wage, but affords them the opportunity of earning the choice of beautiful automobiles, trips, or large sums of cash.

The object of this subscription drive is to secure a paid-in-advance subscriber in every home in this trade territory and at the same time offer everyone a chance to make some extra money. It will be pleasant work, for although the Sikeston Standard has an excellent circulation list there are a number of people not now taking it who will be glad to subscribe, if asked. Then there are others who are regular subscribers who will be anxious to renew their subscriptions; some of these are in arrears and collecting back accounts earns just as many credits as getting new subscriptions.

Compensation for All

The person who proves to be the best salesman or saleslady will, on December 23rd, be given the choice of a Chevrolet, a Plymouth, or a Ford, or a magnificent tour of Europe or the cash cost of the tour to this newspaper, which is $600. The second grand award will be the choice of a delightful trip to California, with all expenses paid or the cash cost of the trip, which is $200. The workers finishing third, fourth, fifth and sixth, will each receive special cash awards in addition to the twenty per cent paid each week.

It costs nothing to enter this big campaign and earn a valuable award. Compensation is promised to every worker who carries on an active campaign and secures subscriptions.

There can be no loses. However, some will reap a greater harvest than others, depending upon the demonstrated sales ability compared with the other workers. But no matter whether the award is a luxurious automobile, a fascinating trip, or cash, it will be splendid and extraordinary compensation for the effort and spare time put forth.

Enter Today.

Start now, today, and swing into a stride that will carry you to success. Every person whose nomination is accepted is free to enlist the aid of friends and associates. Secure a receipt book at once from the campaign department and start your march toward victory. Early subscriptions earn more credits than those secured late in the campaign; the early weeks are the best.

Turn now to the large announcement on pages four and five. Clip the entry blank and bring or send it to the Sikeston Standard. The time is very short, so make up your mind now to enter, for you will be richly rewarded. The more you do the more you get, for the minimum guarantee to you is one dollar out of every five dollars you collect in subscriptions. You can make your compensation what you wish, from a 20 per cent commission to a high powered automobile, a tour of Europe or $600 in cash.

LOCAL BOY WINS 10-ROUND BOUT

Babe O'Brien, Los Angeles lightweight who is making his headquarters in Sikeston this winter, went ten rounds Friday night with Slim Weaver to a close decision before the South Broadway Athletic Club, Poplar Bluff. While here O'Brien is making his home at the Ed Albright home on Gladys St.

Fight and mat cards seem to be gaining in favor in the district. Edgar Davie of Carbondale, mat expert, has scheduled several cards in Southern Illinois, Kentucky and Illinois. Local Legionnaires have for some time considered sponsoring fights, and it seems now that with O'Brien here willing to assist in promotion, and Davie anxious to appear locally, that local fight fans may yet see their favorite sport in local rings.

LOCAL BOY ASSISTS NEW MADRID LIONS IN PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT

A rush call Friday morning from the director of a Lions Club play "Oh Professor" at New Madrid for the character "Dave Crandall" was answered by Louis Walker who portrayed that part here several months ago.

The play had been widely advertised, tickets had been sold, and the cast was ready to present the college comedy when the leading man became suddenly ill—too ill to participate—on the date of the play.

Walker carried the show during the local performance and with a three or four-hour review of the manuscript made a creditable showing at New Madrid.

SCEOND SCOUT TRAINING COURSE TO BE THURSDAY

The second meeting of the Sikeston Training Course will be held at the Methodist Church basement here Thursday evening. According to Scout executives it is not too late for men in this district to enroll. Training course classes are held monthly.

Mrs. M. C. Cunningham of Desloge is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dover.

SGT. REED TO REPORT FOR ROAD PATROL DUTY NEXT MONDAY MORNING

Sergant Rufus R. Reed, not captain as previously stated, of the Missouri Highway Patrol, is spending the week in Sikeston following graduation exercises held last Saturday in St. Louis marking the completion of a six-weeks' term of preparation and study. He will report for assignment to duty next Monday at Jefferson City, and will immediately begin his duties together with other members of Missouri's new Highway Patrol. Eight patrolmen will be stationed in this district of the State, comprising some twenty-four counties.

Definite and official highway regulations to be enforced by the patrol were published in The Standard last week. Of these a few will receive particular attention of patrolmen. Drivers who insist upon passing other cars on the crest of hills or at curves will be arrested. There is no speed limit on Missouri highways, but reckless driving will lead to trouble, Reed stated.

And one item mentioned may save local motorists a bit of roadside embarrassment. License plates must be kept "reasonably" clean, according to law, and patrolmen have been instructed to stop motorists who do not obey this regulation and to oversee the cleaning operation then and there.

Members of the patrol have also received instructions to enforce the recent Missouri law requiring wagons and other vehicles to carry tail lights after dark. Statistics show that many accidents are caused by not displaying danger lights, and a law requiring farmers and others who use the highways after nightfall with wagons and farm implements to display either a light or reflector was passed by the last session of the Legislature.

FRANK TROUSDALE WITH WHIZ BANG STORE

The Whiz Bang Store has secured the services of Frank Trousdale of this city in their department store. Frank is a graduate of the Sikeston High School, has been all over the United States and parts of Arkansas, is polite and agreeable and will be a valuable acquisition to the Whiz Bang Store.

HOLDUP SUSPECTS HELD UP FRIDAY

Being halted by officers of the law at 1:30 o'clock in the morning and questioned as hold-up suspects, was the experience of Miss Hyacinth Sheppard, Standard linotype operator; Mrs. Ruth Malone, secretary to Dr. T. C. McClure, and Daniel Malone, high school student.

The Sikeston party was enroute to St. Louis having left home at 9:00 o'clock Thursday evening, so that Daniel Malone might participate in the All-State High School orchestra Friday night, held in connection with the State Teachers' Association meeting in that city.

A car whizzed out of a filing station just north of Crystal City and doggedly set in to follow the Sheppard machine. Lights flashed and soon the wierd moan of a police siren sent a chill through the Sikeston party. They realized that they were being followed. There followed a hasty rearangement of valuables and money. Then came the surprise.

Two men approached the local party and after preliminaries were over, members of the Sikeston group realized that they were being questioned by police. The spokesman for the officers informed them that a holdup had been committed earlier in the evening. He glanced suspiciously at Daniel Malone's violin case—it might have contained a machine gun, and the Sheppard car, he said, tallied exactly with the description of the robber's automobile.

Then two women began talking, explaining and soon the officers were routed before a verbal barrage. They withdrew in apologetic confusion and the Sikeston party continued to St. Louis.

WILL HOLD PRELIMINARY HEARING THURSDAY IN QUERTERMOUS-BENNETT CASE

Henry Bennett and Merrel Davis will probably face preliminary hearing next Thursday afternoon before Judge Jos. W. Myers on charges of assault and battery, trespass and disturbing the peace. The various charges are the outgrowth of a disturbance Friday morning on the Handy Smith farm just east of the city, in which Hobart Quertermous, 34, and Bennett figured prominently.

According to the latter, he and Davis were "just knocking around as boys will" on land farmed by the Quertermous family. They were not hunting, he claims, and did not even have a gun. Quertermous ordered the boys from his land, and acording to Bennett "got hard". Bennett invited him off his land to settle the difficulty During the fight near Highway 60, Quertermous was injured when struck by Bennett, and was brought to the Emergency Hospital, where a scalp and cheek wound were treated. He was released Sunday morning.

Leonard and N. S. Quertermous appeared on the scene shortly after the altercation, and marched Bennett and Davis to town at the point of a gun, so the boys allege.

THIS IS MAJESTIC WEEK AT DEMPSTERS

Vernon R. Erickson, special representative of the Majestic Manufacturing Company, St. Louis, makers of ranges known the country over, is conducting a special demonstration this week at Dempster's Furniture Store.

All of the original ideas are incorporated in the new ranges which boast additional points of superiority. Various colors are obtainable to harmonize with modern kitchen decoration schemes.

Mr. Erickson not only points out new conveniences, but explains in detail various features often overlooked by the prospective stove buyer.

AUXILIARY NOTES

The Auxiliary of the American Legion will meet with Mrs. C. L. Blanton, Sr., Wednesday evening. All members will come prepared to make a report on the disposal of the embroidered sheet and pillow slips.

George Lough, manager of the local Buckner-Ragsdale Store, returned Monday morning from an eight-day buying trip to eastern markets. While in New York, Mr. Lough attended a convention of Associated Clothiers.

PUBLIC INVITED TO MUSIC CLUB PROGRAM FRIDAY

The pubic is invited to attend a program at the Methodist church next Friday afternoon November 20 at 3:30 o'clock at which time members of the Apolo Music Club will present an interesting arrangement of vocal, piano and organ numbers.

Those who will appear on the program include, Mrs. Ralph Anderson, Mrs. Tom Allen, Miss Ellen Caverno, Miss Kathryn Clark, Mrs. Arch Russell, Mrs. H. J. Welsh, Mrs. Frank W. Van Horne and Mrs. H. E. Reuber. Frederick Claibourne, teacher of instrumental music, Cape Girardeau, will assist. The Club now has a total enrollment of thirty-nine members.

CLAIM FIND OF HUGE TREASURE IN MEXICO

Mexico City.—Ernesto Loeck, a German who has hunted for a treasure in Mexico for 20 years, is here making arrangements with the Government for supervision and troops to aid him when he breaks open a claim in the State of Michoacan he thinks is worth $25,000,000.

The treasure he thinks he has found is that of the Tarascan King Calzontzin, who disappeared in 1522 following the Spanish conquest, and who is thought to have drowned while fighting the Spaniards who subdued Michoacan the year after the Mexican conquest. Only part of the King's treasure was found.

Loeck began the search in 1909. A few months ago he discovered the opening of an underground passage on the summit of LaBates de Oro. The passage was filled with debris, and Loeck and a companion cleared it for a distance of nearly 300 feet as they descended reguarly formed stairs along which were inscriptions.

At the end of this hall, Loeck says, he came on the mummy of a woman, behind which was constructed a wall, which he and the companion broke through until they were stopped by an intolerable odor.

He has requested the Treasury Department, which has supervision over national treasure, to send observers back with him to check the Government's 50 per cent share of the treasure, if it is uncovered, and to give him sufficient guarantees when he opens the supposed storehouse.

RUMMAGE SALE NETS WOMAN'S CLUB $42.50

Mrs. J. L. Tanner was hostess to the Woman's Club, Tuesday afternoon, November 10. A business session was conducted in a very efficient way by Mrs. Arch Russell, the president of the Club. Interesting and entertaining reports of the Annual Ninth District Woman's Club meeting were given by Mrs. Calvin Greer, Mrs. C. L. Blanton and Mrs. Russell. That meeting was held at Kennett. Mrs. R. L. Burns arranged the music for the meeting at Kennett and will serve in that capacity for the meeting next year which will be held at Farmington. The next meeting of the Sikeston Woman's Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Welsh, November 24.

The rummage sale held by the Club Saturday, yielded them $42.50. This sale was managed and directed by Mrs. H. E. Reuber.

TO DEDICATE U. D. C. MARKER AT CAPE SUNDAY

According to an announcement by Mrs. Glenn Hope, president of the Cape Girardeau U. D. C. Chapter, the public is invited to attend a dedication program next Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock in that city, at which time a Confederate Memorial will be unveiled. The stone is located at the Missouri side of the bridge approach, at the end of Morgan and Oak Streets.

A. F. Lindsay and family of Cape Girardeau were Sikeston visitors Saturday.

RED CROSS TOTAL REACHES $800 HERE

Although returns are still incomplete, a preliminary report received Monday from Red Cross workers and C. C. White, County Treasurer, indicate that the annual Roll Call Drive started last Thursday, will be a success, at least as far as Sikeston is concerned.

According to Mr. White, a total of $655 had been deposited in the bank, although only 93 memberships were accounted for by his office. The balance of membership cards were held by F. E. Mount, County Chairman, who could not be reached Monday afternoon for a statement.

A committee composed of M. M. Beck and E. F. Schorle, reported to The Standard that their returns on Malone Avenue were in the neighborhood of $80, which sends the total to $735. H. C. Young, one of the captains in Ward 2, stated Monday evening that colections in that district would be about $56, which brings total collections officially and unofficially accounted for to $791. Other committees have yet to make a final report before the drive closes a week from Friday.

WOMAN 72 YEARS OLD KILLED WHEN STRUCK BY CAR NEAR MOREHOUSE

Mrs. Anna Simmons, 72 years old, died at the Charles Bradshaw home, Morehouse, at midnight Friday about ten hours after being struck by a car driven by Luther Vowels, farmer living east of Charleston. The accident happened on Hgihway 60 near the Bob Calvin grove, about one and one-half miles east of Morehouse.

Acording to Dr. I. H. Dunaway, physician who attended the aged woman, she had walked and "hitch hiked" to New Madrid, where she appeared before the County Court with a request for financial assistance.

The Court gave her an order on a Morehouse grocery. She was on her way back from New Madrid, walking, and just previous to the accident had stopped a wagon and secured permission to ride. In climbing into the conveyance, she dropped her handkerchief, and stooped to pick it up, when the Volwels car, east bound, struck her. She suffered a fractured left arm, right leg and severe scalp lacerations.

She was taken first to the office of Dr. Dunaway, who treated her injuries, and then removed to the Bradshaw home, where she died some ten hours later.

So far as can be learned, Mrs. Simmons is originally from Arkansas, but has no known relatives. Mrs. Bradshaw, herself the mother of eighteen chidren, felt sorry for her and had agreed to allow her to remain at the home for the winter. Neither Mr. or Mrs. Bradshaw are related to Mrs. Simmons.

New Madrid County will probably be asked to assist with burial expenses although arangements could not be learned late Saturday evening.

ARMY OF FEDERAL PROHI SPEND FRIDAY 'DRYING UP' NEW MADRID COUNTY

A young army of Federal dry agents assisted by deputies assembled at the Sensenbaugh "Y" station south of town Friday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock, using that highway intersection as a point of the dragnet which extended from one corner of New Madrid County to the other. Eleven such agents comprised the flying squadron which closed in on large and small operators in the neighboring county, and sent dry law violators before John A. Ferguson, United States Commissioner in Cape Girardeau.

Agents and deputies were dressed as cotton pickers, farm hands, day laborers, lumber men and a few in ordinary business suits. Under cover men had played their cards well, as is shown by the large number of arrests made. Part of the squadron was drafted from St. Louis to assist agents from the recently created Poplar Bluff and Cape Girardeau offices.

Each of the eleven alleged violators was placed under $100 bond for appearance in Federal Court, Cape Girardeau, April 11. By Friday night four of the group had been released on bond.

According to the Southeast Missourian Saturday, the following men were captured in the New Malrid County raids:

Chares G. Kassell, the Cape Girardeau County man, possession of moonshine still.

George Stewart, sales, 10 miles northeast of East Prairie.

Cecil Stewart, possession, same place, son of George Stewart.

Ben F. Mason, possession, New Madrid.

Mrs. Ben F. Mason, sale, New Madrid.

O. B. Williams, sale, Marston.

Remas Avery, possession, Marston.

Edward Wright, sale and possession, near Morehouse.

John Dunfee, sale and possession, Morehouse.

Freeman Reeves, sale and possession, Morehouse.

John F. Twitty, sale of liquor and possession of still, between Morehouse and Sikeston.

Charles Hall, sale and possession, Morehouse.

Richard R. Price, possession, south of Sikeston.

John Holder, possession, south of Sikeston.

Another still was found by the agents, they said at the John F. Twitty place, which is located a mile south of Highway 60, between Morehouse and Sikeston. Twitty is charged with making a sale of liquor to the agents, and the small still was confiscated. It was not set up, and way poorly hidden in a hay stack near the house.

The still was evdiently a crude outfit, and capable of turning off only liquor of a poor quality and slowly. A gallon and a half of home brew beer was found, according to the agents.

Southeast of Sikeston. George Stewart and his son, Cecil, were arrested, the liquor allegedly being found in the basement of the house. Five gallons of whisky, a half gallon of gin, and 15 gallons of mash were found, according to the agents' report. Stewart and his son were at home.

Arrest Husband, Wife

Ben F. Mason and Mrs. Mason were arested at their home in New Madrid, and Mrs. Masone is said to have made the sale to the agents, who said they easily made the "buy'. Home brew, 86 pints of it, 3 quarts of colored whisky and 16 gallons of brew was in the house.

Raids in Morehouse

Dunfee was arrested in Morehouse, and the agents found 37 quarts of home brew beer and three quarts of whisky. Dunfee's charge is sale and possession.

Freeman Reeves was also arrested in Morehouse and a pint of whisky was discovered there.

Charles Hall of Morehouse, charged with selling and possessing liquor, the agents said had 21 pints of beer and three quarts of whisky on hand.

Price and Holder were both found at a rural home in New Madrid County, a short distance south of Sikeston. A small amount of brewed spirits and a half gallon of whisky were located.

The agents accompanied by Sheriff Lester Massingham, Deputy Wiley Owen and Chief of Police Bob Davis of Poplar Bluff, operated Friday night and early Saturday morning bringing in thirteen alleged violators, including two women. Most of the arrests were made in Poplar Bluff.

CO-WORKERS TEA

The Co-Workers of the Methodist church cordially invite you to attend their quilt display and food sale at the home of Mrs. Frank Sikes Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hollingsworth were visitors in Memphis, Tenn., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sammers of St. Louis were business visitors to Sikeston the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Alexander of Charleston and Mrs. Dave Thompson of Caruthersville visited Mr. and Mrs. Jos. L. Matthews Sunday. Mrs. Thompson had been the guest of her parents in Charleston and was enroute home.

AL'S HOMER A FEATURE OF U. S.-JAPAN GAME

Toshiyasu Ogawa, Japan, November 14.—A homer by Al Simmons, of the Philadelphia Athletics, which pierced the umbrella bleachers in center field was the high spot of a baseball game between the touring United States All-Stars and an all-Japan team today, played in a drizzle before 40,000 fans and won by the Americans 6 to 3.

Miss Estell McMullin of Essex was a visitor in the Jim Pitman home Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. John Fisher entertained Saturday afternoon with four tables of bridge, complimenting Mrs. T. DuBart League of St. Louis.

SIKESTON STANDARD

C. L. BLANTON, EDITOR

ISSUED TUESDAY AND FRIDAY AT SIKESTON, MISSOURI

Entered at the Postoffice at Skeston, Scott County, Missouri, as second-class mail matter, according to act of Congress.

Rates:
Reading notices, per line.....10c
Bank statements $10.00
Yearly subscription in Scott and the adjoining counties $1.50
Yearly subscription elsewhere in the United States $2.00

You will observe from the double page spread that the Standard is putting on a subscription contest, not because we do not now have the largest list of any paper serving this trritory, but to get our books in order for an audit soon after the first of the year, and to collect all subscriptions due us, or drop them from the list. The price of The Twice-a-Week Sikeston Standard is now $1.50 per year and will continue at this rate until this contest campaign closes, after which the price will be advanced to $2.00 per year whether it is worth it or not. We would like very much for The Standard to go into the homes of everyone in the Sikeston trade territory as the advertising messages alone will be worth many times the price of the subscription. We are saying nothing about the entertainment features of the paper, though we will do our best to furnish reliable news, and give our views editorially on any and all subjects that come before us. Renewals at $1.50 per year will be in order until the first of the new year after which the $2.00 rate will be in effect.

Sunday, November 15, was another of those spring days, no furnace fires, doors and windows open and a well dressed girl of 8 or 10 years on the street bare footed. Can you beat it?

It certainly is strange how a few lines in a newspaper will cause boys to kick the ball with a vengance. The coach tells us that every time the boys in practice kicked the pig skin they said: "this is the seat of the britches of the fellow who said we wore skirts." Anyway, it got results in practice games.

Boston is in trouble. On a World War memorial lately erected in that city, the words "conspicuously" and "intrepidity" are found to be misspelled. The first impulse is to deride Boston's culture and suggest the old-fashioned spelling bee, but anyone is likely to make a slip. Her more serious offense is participating in the common practice of loading up votive stones with words of thundering sound. The attention of designers of war memorials is courteously directed to a bramble-hidden marker that was discovered in the South some years ago. It was inscribed only with the words: "A Georgia Volunteer".

The records show that more than three hundred undesirable aliens, whom the government wished to deport, have been killed off in gang warfare. A bad man who sneaks into a country where he is not wanted, of course does not deserve to be shot on general principles, and no one would attempt to justify gang homicides on any ground, yet it happens that in the strange working of the affairs of this world, some good has come from the operation of the extremely hateful agency mentioned. On the other hand, no one can be proud of the fact that immigration laws were enforced by thugs.

The Standard editor is told that some high handed pressure is being used in an endeavor to squeeze money from already overburdened merchants in Sikeston and other cities and towns. Friday last one merchant of this city informed us of four calls in one day to give money for advertising space in church papers, directories, school programs and civic enterprises in this and other communities. This merchant felt that he could not stand the pressure and politely declined to have his allotment for legitimate advertising squandered in such manner. One of the high powered brothers of a church sect intimated that if the merchant did not take advertising space in his scheme that his church people would trade elsewhere. These skin game advertising schemes should not be allowed as they are worthless to the merchant.

The editor put in several hours the past week taking up roots and bulbs and putting them in the basement for winter. This sort of work was a gentle reminder that we were not as young as we used to be as the work almost played us out. However, the work was satisfactorily done.

Bishop Cannon says the reason he was indicted in the District of Columbia was because there were 12 Catholics on the panel of 24 to select from. Bishop Cannon was looking for a bunch of his brethren on the jury like those at Atlanta, Ga., who, by a vote of 12 to 1, suspended the Rev. Rembert G. Smith of Sparta, Ga., for criticising Bishop Cannon. Now if the Catholic District Attorney at Washington can only pack his trial jury with all Catholices, we believe Bishop Cannon will get his just dues—an acquittal or a conviction.

The Japanese and Chinese are going at each other in real warlike fashion in Manchuria. The question now occupying the minds of neutral experts on the situation is whether or not Russia will be drawn into the fracas. Japan is not particularly interested in having to cross swords with Russia. China might not object to the entrance of Russia into the war, since her chances of winning Russian friendship are better than those of Japan. Russia has her Five Year Plan to absorb all of her energies at home, and is willing to keep her finger out of the pie, if possible. However it goes, there is business on hand for the League of Nations and for the adjusters of pre-war, war, and post-war difficulties.

The old myth that hogs cannot be poisoned still lingers and is believed to be true by some. Mostly by those however that think vaccination against hog cholera is of no value. The origin of the belief that hogs were immune to poison arose from the fact when any animal is poisoned if you can get quantities of lard down its throat it will counteract the poison to some extent and is one of the best known antidotes. A hog being the lard producing animal was given credit of having this antidote on hand ready for an emergency. The facts are the lard on a hog has nothing to do with his intestinal affairs and any strong acids, lye, strychnine, arsenic or deadly poison of like nature will kill a hog as quick as any other animal.—La-Plata Home Press.

POOR HOUSE—STRAIGHT AHEAD

The price-cutter is worse than a criminal. He is a fool. He not only pulls down the standing of his goods; he not only pulls down his competitors; he pulls down himself and his whole trade. He scuttles ship in which he himself is afloat.

Nothing is so easy as to cut the prices; and NOTHING IS SO HARD AS TO GET THEM BACK when once they have been pulled down. Any child can throw a glass of water on the floor, but all the scientists in the world can't pick that water up.

Who gets the benefit of price-cutting? Nobody. The man who sells makes no net profit; and the man who buys soon finds himself getting an inferior article. No manufacturer can permanently keep up the standard of his goods if the price is persistently cut. Pretty soon he is compelled to use cheaper materials, and cut down the wages of his workers.

The man who cuts prices puts out the sign: "This way to the junk-heap!" He admits his own failure as a salesman. He admits he has been defeated according to the Marquis of Queensbury rules of business. He admits he cannot win by fighting fair. He brands himself as a hitter-below-the belt. If the business world were dominated by price-cutters, there would be no usiness at all. Price cutting, in fact, is is not business any more than smallpox is health.—Branding Iron.

WANTS TO KNOW "IF MISSOURI INDIANS MUST HAVE FISHING LICENSES"

Hundreds of inquiries concerning Missouri's outdoor life, from, "Do the Indians of Missouri have fishing licenses?" to "What is the best method to raise fish worms?" are answered annually by the bureau of public information of the Missouri Game and Fish Department, in addition to hundreds more inquiries concerning the opportunities and possibilities of this state's out-of-doors.

This inquiry service is conducted in addition to the general educational work of the department through newspapers, magazines, radio motion pictures, exhibits, maps, and bulletins.

A comprehensive file of information and sources is maintained by the bureau for the use of persons interested in the conservation and restoration of wild life resources and kindred subjects.

GOVERNOR WILL INSPECT MISSOURI HIGHWAY PATROL

Gov. Calufield will inspect 49 patrolmen and six officers of the recently created Missouri State Highway Patrol Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the gymnasium at Police Headquarters, St. Louis.

The men have completed a six weeks' course at the School of Instruction of the police department. After their review Saturday they will receive furloughs of several days, then will report at Jefferson City for active duty.

The New All-Enamel

Majestic Range

Has Every Modern Convenience Without Changing Your Fuel . . . Kitchens Cool and Pleasant While Cooking

Here is the finest Kitchen Range you ever saw—a marvel of efficiency and convenience. It represents the experience of years in the scientific development of home cooking facilities. It holds the heat inside the stove, concentrated on the cooking and baking, instead of wasting it in heating up the kitchen. It is a delight to work with; a beautiful thing to own.

Advanced Construction

This New Majestic is as great an improvement over old-time stoves as the modern automobile is over the old-fashioned high bicycle. Practical requirements have been studied under actual working conditions. Hundreds of experiments and tests have been made. The final result is a triumph in efficiency and handiness.

Complete insulation concentrates the heat around the oven, where heat is needed. The outside is comparatively cool. The solid polished top cooking plate is more sanitary and easier to clean than lids. The sanitary shelf, the easy clean-out features, and the removable doors and stakes make this the neatest of ranges. Precisely-fitting doors increase its cleanliness and its remarkable cooking and heat-tight qualities.

For a Cool and Beautiful Kitchen

Not only will such a Range as this lighten your work and give you surer results—its beauty will be a constant source of pride. Its new all-enamel finish—in Ivory, Apple Green, Gray, White or Blue—blending with any color decoration—is easily kept spick and span. You wipe it off as quickly as a china dish. The New Majestic gives you a kitchen you're proud to show—one that's always cool and comfortable to work in.

"Pay-as-you-use-it" Plan

Don't envy your neighbor who has this wonderful modern aid to good housekeeping—get one for yourself! It's so easy. You can pay for it as you use it; a little down, small regular payments that you can spread over many months! No interest; no carrying charges; no extra cost! We'll gladly install one of these wonderful New Ranges in your kitchen on this easy-payment basis.

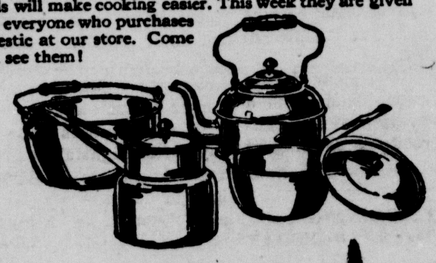

Your Opportunity

This is a real opportunity. Take advantage of it. No longer need you be handicapped with poor or worn out equipment. No one can do good work without good tools. Your kitchen range is the most important tool in your daily work. Once you realize how much time and effort it saves, how it makes everything "turn out right," and what a real joy it is to own, you would not be without it for any amount of money.

This week the factory man is here. Come in and let him explain how the New Majestic will lighten your work, help you do better work, and give you a kitchen to be proud of.

These Utensils FREE

These handsome DeLuxe CopperWare heavily nickel plated utensils will make cooking easier. This week they are given free to everyone who purchases a Majestic at our store. Come in and see them!

PARMA TO ORGANIZE FOUR 4-H CLUBS THIS WEEK

In a letter to County Extension Agent Scott M. Julian, Mrs. Solon Gee, chairman of the 4-H Club committee of the Parma Hone and Community Club, stated that boys and girls of Parma had requested that Poultry Club; Garment Making 1 Club, and Garment Making 11 Club. Club, and Garment Making 11 cub. Professor Miller who is taking an active interest in club work has set the organization day at Tuesday, November 10. It is quite likely that there will be two pig clubs as there are more boys wanting to belong to a pig club than one leader can successfully handle. Good local leaders have also been secured for each of these clubs. Last year Parma had two 4-H clubs, both of which completed successfully. The Pig Club at Canalou under the leadership of Owen J. Taul is making rapid advance. The pigs are all in fine shape and the boys and girls taking care of them like veteran hog raisers.

Each Home and Community Club has a 4-H club committee, and it is expected that in the very near future a number of other clubs will be organized at these different points where home and community clubs exist at the present time. Communities which do not have home and community clubs will also be given the opportunity of 4-H Clubs.

PREPARING POULTRY FOR MARKET

Many farm chickens and turkeys reach the market in poor condition because they are not killed and bled properly. Hang up the bird by its feet on a wire hook. When killing it, grasp it by the bony part of the skull. Don't hold a bird by the neck—this often causes discolored spots. Use a sharp-pointed, narrow-bladed knife. Make a small cut inside the mouth on the right side of the throat, cutting downward and to the right. Thrust the knife through the groove along the middle of the roof of the mouth until it pierces the brain. Hanging the bird head down and braining it carefully make it bleed well. Poorly bled poultry shows dark, blood-filled veins and reddened areas of skin, which mar the appearancee and make the flesh spoil more quickly.

POPCORN TO BE PLANTED ON 1000 S. E. MO. ACRES

Poplar Bluff, Mo., Nov. 13.—One thousand acres of Southeast Missouri farm land in 46 farms owned by a St. Louis insurance company, will be planted to popcorn during the coming year, O. L. Holland, head of the company, said here yesterday.

Holland is making a tour of farms owned by his concern, and is giving instructions to tenants relative to production of the best grade of popcorn.

Declaring that 50 acres on his farm near Goff, Kan., produced 1,000 bushels of popcorn during the past summer and that the net proceeds totaled about $3.50 per bushel when he marketed the crop himself, Holland is of the opinion that popcorn promises to be one of the most valuable cash crops for the middle west, providing marketed correctly.

The small tract in Kansas brought gross returns during the year of $3,500, he said.

HYDE REFUSES EXTENSION OF MISSOURI DUCK SEASON

Secretary of Agriculture Hyde, in a letter to Frank A. Habig, president of the Missouri Duck Hunters' Association, announces that the duck shooting season in Missouri will not be extended to Dec. 1, as was requested by the association.

Secretary Hyde explained that ducks are scarce and, if the season should be extended in Missouri, it would be necessary to make similar concessions in other states. The purpose of the short season is to better hunting conditions in future years, Hyde explains. The season in Missouri opened Oct. 20 and will close Nov. 19.

A doctor who charged a sick man twenty-eight thousand dollars for one hundred and sixty-five visits, is explaining his bill in the probate court. The sum of twenty-eight thousand dollars seems like a good deal of money, but no doubt the charge was reasonable, and as easily explained as the fee of the surgeon, who wrote, in response to a request for an itemized statement: "To repairing and resetting 1½ yards of intestine at $200 per yard, $300".

CATHOLIC PAPER LAYS DOWN RULES FOR GIRLS

A 12 o'clock girl is a nuisance and a torment to a 10 o'clock family, it is observed by St. Sebastian's Chronicle, publication of St. Sebastian's Catholic church in Milwaukee.

To relieve the 10 o'clock family and promote the welfare of the 12 o'clock girl, the Chronicle lays down rules of conduct for the modern girl. Some of the admonitions are as follows:

"Don't parade the streets with an 'all dressed up and nowhere particular to go' air, hoping to be picked up by the first nice looking boy who happens to be passing. There is far too much casual informality these days.

"Always tell your mother where you are going, and with whom. Don't deceive her, and return on time.

"Don't be misled by charming male admirers who affect 'something for nothing benevolence.' Don't accept presents of clothing, jewelry or money from them.

"Don't let fellows treat you to intoxicating liquor, privately or publicly.

"Don't attach too much importance to cosmetics and facial makeup. A gentle disposition and refined character are much more fascinating.

"Avoid demoralizing dances, don't become a jazz maniac.

"Beware of the man who, after an acquaintance of only a quarter of an hour, wants to put his arm around your waist. You may take it for granted that he does this by force of habit, and that he is a flirt to be shunned.

"If you have found a really decent boy friend be loyal to him, and don't flit like a butterfly from one to another. Invite him home and introduce him to your father and mother. See to it that he call for you at your home whenever you want to go out together never keep him waiting outside, ither whistling to you or impatiently sounding his motor horn.

"Don't expect to go through life dressed as a fashion plate. You must learn to be useful as well as ornamental."

Girls are advised to swim, play hockey, lacrosse, tennis, and cultivate docestic joys of the home circle. But they are warned against becoming interested in boxing or wrestling.

Are you sure you have a perfect title to your property? In other words, have you a title insurance policy? It's the only positive and lasting protection. It costs so little and means so much that no property owner can afford to ignore its advantages.

GREASING SERVICE

No Longer Need You Try to Make One Grease Do the Work of Seven

Watchmakers use a thin non-oxidizing oil to lubricate the delicate parts of a time piece. The whining reducing gears of a hugh steam turbine, revolving at terrific speed, require a thick, heavy coating of oil to quench the tremendous friction produced.

A special lubricant is needed for each.

Yet, most motorists ignore this fact when applied to the car which they are driving. They have never considered that there are vast differences in greases, just as there are in motor oils and gasoline. No one grease can hope to effectually lubricate all parts. Modern specialized lubrication is necessary to keep step with improvements in the highly developed cars of today. Old methods must be discarded. The timeworn slogan, "One for all and all for one" doesn t hold for greases.

These diversified Quaker State greases place a smooth, protecting, compelling finger exactly on each moving part of your car which needs a special lubricant. Thick greases, thin greases, soft greases, hard greases—all have a definite function to perform.

INSIST upon Quaker State grease next time you have your car serviced. We are specialists in lubrication and we know there are no better greases than the new "7 point" greases made by Quaker State with the same care and finesse that for years has marked the famous Quaker State motor oil.

Or if the winner desires CASH, he or she may have the amount such a trip would cost the Sikeston Standard, which amount is $600. Everybody wins. Start NOW and win your choice of these first award options.

"Weekly Payroll" PLAN IN BRIEF

The object of this big "Weekly Payroll" Drive is two-fold. Primarily, to increase the already large subscription list of this newspaper; to collect arrearages and advance subscription payments from present or old subscribers, and at the same time to afford the live-wire, energetic men and women, boys and girls, of this territory an opportunity to profit in a BIG way through their spare time during the next few weeks. So, it is a plan that works both ways, and to the ultimate good of all concerned.

In order to gain this end quickly and advantageously, the most attractive awards ever offered by any newspaper in this section have been made ready for distribution among those who participate most actively. Ambition and energy are the only requisites for success.

Let it be understood at the very outset that this is not a "beauty" nor "popularity" contest, but a strictly legitimate competitive proposition for enterprising men and women, and one into which no element of chance enters. Each active participant will receive a pay check every Saturday night. One feature of this drive is the fact that "Everybody Wins." There will be no losers.

HOW TO ENTER—WHAT TO DO

The first thing to do is to clip the Entry Coupon appearing below; fill in your name and address and mail or deliver to this newspaper at once. This coupon entitles you, or the person whom you might wish to enter, to 5,000 free credits. These credits are given as a starter to speed you on your way to win. Only one such Entry Coupon will be accepted for each participant.

The next step is to call or write the "Weekly Payroll" Department for a free working outfit. Thus equipped, you have but to see your friends and acquaintances and have them subscribe to this newspaper through you. That's all there is to it! However, you will never get anywhere unless you make the start—the earlier the better. Once started, let no one discourage you. Anything worth having is worth striving for. Six and a half short weeks and you may be riding in your own BIG automobile or otherwise several hundred dollars richer in purse.

HOW CREDITS ARE SECURED

It takes credits to win, and they are secured in the following ways: First by clipping the Free Credit Coupons appearing in each issue of this newspaper. There is no limit to the number of these coupons you may secure. Get your friends to save them for you. They all count. Begin gathering them NOW while they are good for 100 credits each. After next week these coupons will be reduced to 50 credits each. The following week to 10 credits, and after that they will be discontinued entirely. The only restriction placed on these coupons is that they must be cast before the expiration date.

The other, and much faster way to accumulate credits in this "Weekly Payroll" Drive is by securing new and renewal subscriptions to this newspaper. On each order secured credits are issued, the number varying according to the amount paid and during which "period" same are received at the "Weekly Payroll" Department of this newspaper. (See schedule of credits below.)

EARLY START MEANS EASY FINISH

The advantages of an early start are manifest. This "Weekly Payroll" drive is of such short duration that immediate action is necessary for success. Orders taken during the early part of the campaign carry the MAXIMUM number of credits. Then, too, the first in the field will undoubtedly get the "cream" of credits and subscriptions, while those who put off entering until a later date will have to take what is left.

Don't lose valuable time "waiting to see what the other fellow is going to do," but pitch right in and show the "other fellow" how to do it!

AVOID ERRORS

Please be sure to be accurate in writing names and addresses and in marking subscriptions new or old.

The above schedule will be in effect throughout the campaign and positively will not be changed. However, 100,000 EXTRA credits will be issued for every club of $20 turned in during the first period of the campaign ending Friday, December 4th; during the second period ending Friday, December 11th, each $20 turned in will earn 80,000 extra credits; during the third period ending Friday, December 18th, each $20 turned in will earn 60,000 extra credits; and during the final period of the campaign ending Wednesday, December 23rd, each $20 turned in will earn 50,000 extra credits. A bonus of 10,000 credits will be given every regular report day to each candidate who makes a cash report. No credit offers will be made except as provided for in the original campaign announcement.

CANDIDATES MUST REPORT ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS ON MONDAY, WEDNESDAY AND FRIDAY OF EACH WEEK.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. No salaried employee of this newspaper is eligible to enter this competition.

2. Any reputable man or woman residing in this city or surrounding territory is eligible to enter this drive and compete for awards and weekly pay checks.

3. The winners of the awards will be decided by their earned credits, said credits being represented by ballots issued on cash collections and coupons clipped from this newspaper.

4. Participants in this drive are not confined to their own town or community in which to secure subscriptions, but may take orders anywhere in this section; or, for that matter, anywhere else.

5. Credits are free. It costs the subscriber nothing extra to cast credits for a favorite participant. Credits must be asked for at the time of paying subscriptions, otherwise subscribers waive this privilege.

6. Credits are not transferable. Participants cannot withdraw in favor of another participant. Should a participant withdraw from the race, his or her credits will be cancelled. Neither will it be permissible for participants to give or transfer subscriptions to another participant. Credits on such transferred subscriptions will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the management.

7. Any collusion on the part of participants to nullify competition, or any other combination formed to the detriment of "Weekly Payroll" participants or this newspaper will not be tolerated. Any participant taking part in such combination stands liable to forfeit all right to a prize or commission.

8. All credits issued on ballots may be held in reserve and cast at the discretion of participants or this newspaper. The free credit coupons appearing from time to time in the paper must be cast before the expiration date.

9. In event of a tie for any one of the awards, a prize identical in value will be given each tying participant.

10. Participants in this drive are authorized agents of this newspaper, but it is understood and agreed that they will be responsible for all money collected and will remit such amounts in full on regular report days to the "Weekly Payroll" Department.

11. No statement or promise made by any representative or participant varying from the rules and statement appearing in the columns of this newspaper will be recognized by the publisher.

12. In case of typographical or other errors it is understood that neither the publisher nor "Weekly Payroll" manager shall be held responsible except to make the necessary correction upon discovery of same.

13. ACTIVE participants will be paid a twenty per cent cash commission ($1.00 out of every $5.00 collected) on all subscription money turned in to their account each week. It is distinctly understood, however, that in the event any participant becomes INACTIVE, failing to make a regular cash report, he or she will, at the discretion of the management, become disqualified and thereby forfeit all right to an award or an extra commission.

14. It is understood and agreed that the winners of major awards will consider their weekly pay checks in the light of an "advance," which is refundable upon presentation of prize.

15. To insure absolute fairness in the awarding of prizes, the race will be brought to a close with a sealed ballot box. During the entire last "period" of the drive a ballot box—locked and sealed—will repose in the vaults of a local bank, where participants and their friends may deposit their final collections and reserve credits. In this way, no one—not even the Campaign Manager—can possibly know the actual strength of the various participants, which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.

16. Ten thousand bonus credits will be given every Monday, Wednesday and Friday to each candidate who makes a cash report. Additional merit awards may be added, if this newspaper desires.

17. Fair and impartial treatment is guaranteed to all participants, but should any question or controversy arise the decision of the campaign manager will be final.

18. Renewal subscriptions earn the same number of credits as new ones. Collecting arrears earns just as much commission as advance subscriptions.

19. Salaried employees of this paper, members of their families, and carrier boys cannot enter this campaign. Country correspondents are not barred.

20. In becoming a member of this Weekly Payroll Subscription Drive participants agree to abide by the above conditions.

Fair To All!

It is the sincere aim of The Sikeston Standard to conduct this Weekly Payroll Subscription Drive from start to finish in a fair, honorable and impartial manner. Every precaution to safeguard the interests of the workers is guaranteed. Before the campaign closes this newspaper will, at the approval of the various candidates, appoint a committee of well known residents of this community, whose duty it will be to act as official judges and as such to check the records already established by different workers, as well as their final reports contained in the sealed ballot box and declare the winners. This assures everyone fair, honest and impartial treatment at all times.

BROWN-HAHN

In Jefferson City, October 22, David Brown of that city, and Miss Eula Hahn of Sikeston were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Miss Eula is a graduate of the Sikton High School, of the Chillicothe Business College, was clerk to Senator Wammack during the last session of the Missouri Legislature, and is now employed at the Scott County Mill Co. office.

Mr. Brown is connected with the Botts Printing Co. of Jefferson City.

The bride informs us that she will join her husband in Jefferson City as soon as she finishes paying a debt of honor—money borrowed to attend business college.

The Standard wishes the couple long life and happiness, and honors the bride for her determination to pay money she borrowed for schooling.

Instances of tactics to secure business lost to the Municipal Light and Power Plant on the part of the Missouri Utilities Company which border on being unethical are rumored. Sevcific instances are on file in which owners of buildings and apartments find Utilities Co., meters installed and service connections made without specific consent of the owner. In each instance the Municipal meter was found to be disconnected. A conference between T. A. Martin, M. M. Beck and Dan G. Pepper Monday morning ended in a general denial of the practice by the Utility chiefs.

A young lady writes this inquiry: 'A man says he loves me, yet he pays attention to his wife right under my nose. Can you trust a man like this?" No, lady, no; you cannot trust him. Better pay attention to some man who has no wife to whom to pay attention. And when you find such a man may the Lord have mercy on him.—Jefferson City Post-Tribune.

Mexico has complained now and then about the lack of respect tendered her by the United States. Times have changed in Mexico. She has recognized the things that make for national greatness, and perfected herself acordingly. The baseball nine of Mexico City has trimmed the nine of Dallas, Texas to the tune of 9 to 3. The day for looking down upon Mexico as a second rate power is done.

The "repression" must either be drawing to a close, or else is not equally distributed over the entire country, since it is said that many members of the New York police force are making bank deposits that exceed their wages.

Another mythical estate, awaiting heirs to claim it, is being advertised and exploited as a means for extracting coin from the gullible. Of all money making hoaxes, the unclaimed estate is the hardest to kill, having many times the nine lives of the hardy cat. The only estate definitely waiting for anyone is the great mass of real estate called the earth, and the heir will get his portion, not by court process, but by means of pick and shovel.

A bunch of geese, probably 35 in all, flew over Jackson last Friday afternoon. Directly behind the leader there followed a young goose less than one-fourth the size of the others and was directly in line. As far as we could see the little fellow had no trouble keeping up with the rest, though it was probably his first trip south. Such a thing might be a common occurance, but it was new to us and was a real curiosity.—Jackson Cash-Book.

The Time Magazine reports a conversation in a New Orleans court when a negro was arraigned for owning a quantity of whiskey:

Q. "What do you plead?"

A. "I pleads guilty, and waives the hearing."

Q. "What do you mean, waive the hearing."

A. "I means I don't want to hear no more about it."

AS I SEE IT

By I'm About Town

After more careful consideration Doc Limbaugh would include the Palmer Institute in the 1932 football schedule of Washington and the I. C. S. in the Missouri University schedule.

We wonder whether there is a shortage of light bulbs for automobiles or what. Not in several years have we noticed as as many "one-eyed" automobiles on the highways around Sikeston. One does not know whether the approaching machine is a motorcycle or a cottonpickers' family perambulator.

And by the way, wagons on the highway after dark are required by Missouri law to display a lantern or rear light of some sort. 99 and .44 per cent of them display nothing but an end gate.

We argee in principal but not in fact with the suggestion offered by the Southeast Missourian in Cape Girardeau that the annual state teachers meeting be abandoned. The Missourian points out editorially that the state meeting is usually planned on too large a scale to be of practical benefit, and that district meetings more often fill particular needs by meeting local problems and conditions.

We offer an additional inducement for abandoment of the meetings. Only in a few isolated instances do teachers attend all meetings. More of them go shopping, go to movies or shows, or home—wherever that might be—during the sessions. We often wonder how many teachers would go voluntarily if the matter was left to a vote.

We wish to suggest that the word cute be limited in use by applying it only to some girls, all puppies, most babies, and kittens.

Depressions are fine occasionally. Some folks can't stand prosperity. And most of us learn to rearrange our view of life and living.

The Farmer-Labor leader in Congress, Shipstead is a dentist by trade which makes things come out exactly right for a change. Pull means a lot in both professions.

By way of oddities we add the story of the blind man in Cincinnati who was given a taxi drivers license. The commissioner of police, head of safety council and a group of citizens accompanied the gentleman on his qualification tour. He was not only able to obey all traffic signals, but named streets, buildings and successfully dodged all pedestrians.

We predict that "Sob Sister" which plays Thursday and Friday at the Malone Theatre will be enjoyed by everyone, except newspaper folks, who seldom stamp their approval on the overdone, unethical journalistic methods portrayed.

A one-sided battle with very ripe eggs marked the end of the Charleston-Poplar Bluff game—lost because Coach John Harris Marshall underrated the power of the visiting Mules when he substituted his second string material in the last half. With his lead vanishing rapidly, and finally disappearing altogether, the coach was in the position of the miser who starved to death sitting on a truck ful of gold.

The egg battle, we are told, had nothing to do with players or school rooters. However, a car full of Poplar Bluff girls live to attest the ability of a mere egg to make itself known in a confined space.

EAST PRAIRIE MAN GETS LEVEE CONTRACT

Memphis, Nov. 13.—Contract for the construction of about 8000 cubic yards of earthwork on the Bird's Point-New Madrid floodway levee was awarded by the Memphis engineer district yesterday to C. J. Fugate, East Prairie, Mo., at his bid price of $2,000.

Columbus Allsop says every year he never can see how in the world he is going to scrape up money to pay his taxes, but he always does, somehow, just before the sheriff points his feet in that direction.—Memphis Commercial-Appeal.

Those red flannel petticoats we used to protest were old-fashioned when Grandmother begged us to don them on icy days, are fashionable today. There is nothing so gay or so chic as a flash of red flannel showing a tiny bit under a frock of heavy wool mixture. Red flannel bed jackets and red peignoirs are back again, too, along with similar warmth-giving jackets of soft challis and wool knits.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS FROM PARIS APPEAL

"Not everybody can wear an Empress Eugenie hat becomingly," says a well-known fashion authority. But every woman who tries one on is assured that she is one who can, which accounts for the universal demand for thos emonstrosities. Some women really are very cute under them. Others look like a horse and buggy.

The farming industry has been hard hit, of course, but the fact remains that a larger per cent of farm folk are living like lords than are their town and city cousins. Except in very rare instances, no relief measures are needed in order to keep soul andbody together in farm houses. More than twenty million town and city dwellers must be helped through the winter.

Ghandi ignored court etiquette. Instead of evening clothes and a silk hat, he wore nothing but his diaper and mysterious grin when attending last week's reception in Buckingham palace. The king and queen evidently were all for the diaper and smile. Anyway, they asked Ghandi to stick around for a private conference, probably so the queen could find out if he pins them on like she used to do when her princes were infants.

Mexico broke up gangster and outlaw activities some years ago. Instead of arresting them and making public heroes of them as we too often do, the order down there was to shoot them on sight. This order is still in force. Men caught in the act of robbery are in the hands of the undertaker the next morning. This probably accounts for the fact that an American is in less danger of a holdup in Mexico than in Chicago, New York or most any other big city on this side of the line.

The country is a bit suspicious of that sudden rise in the wheat market. How did it happen that nothing was known of an impending shortage in Europe until the bottoms of bins were reported to have been scraped? Where were our usually vigilant consuls, vice-consuls and trade scouts of other sorts all those weary months of 20c to 35c wheat. There are only two answers to these questions. One is that knowledge of it had been purposely suppressed by those who should have kept American farmers informed. The other is that no such shortage really exists. Time will tell.

Hog-killing time will find 99 per cent of our farm families ready for action and fat hogs at hand for the slaughter. Contrast this vision of plenty, rural friend, with the empty pantries, empty fuel bins and empty purses of ten million families in the towns and cities, and be thankful for the privilege of living where you can raise your own vegetables, fruit and meat, and where there is fuel enough and plenty to spare in your own woods. Even though market conditions are bad, it is better to have peace and plenty on the farm than worry and want elsewhere.

DRAINAGE AID PLAN IS LIKED

Many national and state business farm and drainage heads over the country have assured Julian N. Friant, secretary of the National Drainage Association, they are deeply interested in passage of the Glenn-Smith bill at the next session of Congress, as a means of making a better future for drainage and irrigation districts in the United States. Friant went to St. Louis today in interest of the movement for the bill, and will soon make a trip to Chicago.

Among those who have written letters to Friant and others supporting the measure are Congressman W. C. Hawley of Oregon, S. J. Pyeatt, now of Colorado and formerly Frisco River Division superintendent at Chaffee; E. L. Hunter of the Michigan State Drainage Commission; officers of the Colorado State Chamber of Commerce, Irrigation District Association of California; Chester Gray, farm leader at Washington, D. C.; and Rep. Garner from Texas and the Rio Grande district.

Gray has suggested a conference in Washington before the session of Congress. The California association has written that the entire agriculture West will back the measure.

Clyde D. Harris, president of the board of directors of the First National Bank her, favors the bill, and has sent letters to Illinois bankers to advise them of potential value of the legislation. A paragraph of his letter is:

"We realize the necessity of economy in national expenditures at this time. But bear in mind this is not a raid on the treasury—this is a loan, not a gift—an extension of credit, and not a donation. It is an investment, not an expense, and just as necessary as additional money for the Federal Land Banks or as an appropriation for for the National Credit Corporation, as has been proposed."—Cape Missourian.

R. B. Wade of Benton had business with the Blodgett Elevator here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Darter visited the former's brother in Cape Girardeau Sunday afternoon.

The Juniors in High School are expecting to present an operetta soon. Watch for the date.

DEXTER FARM BUREAU MEETING WELL ATTENDED

Fifteen people from New Madrid county attended the District Farm Bureau meeting at Dexter Friday, November 6th.

This attendance was greater than any other county excepting Stoddard county. There were six from Portageville; three from Parma;. five from Canalou, and County Extension Agent Scott M. Julian from New Madrid.

The program at this meeting was well arranged, and of an instructive nature. Mrs. Redford, State Chairman of the Home and Community committee, gave a very interesting talk for the benefit of the Home and Community women present. New Madrid county folks take considerable pride in the fact that their Home and Community groups are not only thinking of things but are doing them on a very beneficial scale. At the present time the six coummunities—Portageville, Marston, New Madrid, Parma, Matthews and Canalou have organized Home and Community groups. It is expected that the other communities in the county will be organized in the near future. The project which these groups expect to take up ths winter is a Health Project, wth a secondary choice that of clothing.

FURRY LAUGHS LAST ON LESPEDEZA STORY

R. L. Fury, Scott County farm agent mentioned an unusual yield of lespedeza on a Caroll County farm Monday afternoon in the presence of Pleas Malcolm and another Standard representative.

"Just wait", countered Furry," I'll have the last laugh yet", and from the following rewrite from his home town paper, it loks as though his threat was made good.

Big Yields

Fred Renzelman threshed 1357 pounds of Korean Lespedeza seed off of .74 of an acre. The wildest enthusiasts have hoped to get two hundred pounds to the acre and this story of Mr. Renzelman's was so big that he wanted an uninterested party to come and measure the land and weigh the seed. The above figures are what the committee found.

At the opening of the season last year, this lespedeza seed sold for fifty cents per pound, but by the close of the season, it was selling for somewhat less. The market this year looks like thirty cents per pound will be what it will start with. Anyway you figure, this part of an acre will be rather a profitable venture by Fred Renzelman.

A. H. Hermance, a teacher of agriculture, has eighteen acres on Frank Renzelman's farm and sixty acres on John Booker's farm, which looks equally as good, and early threshing reports indicate that it is making around one thousand pounds per acre, so it looks like Carroll County would produce plenty of lespedeza seed this year.

MISS BECKER HEADS JUNIOR HADASSAH GROUP

Osceola, Ark., November 14.—Miss Fannye Becker of Sikeston, Mo., was elected president of the Junior Hadassah organization, perfected at a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. William Barowsky, former president of the southwest region of the Junior Hadassah, at Manila.

Other officers are Miss Anna Barkovitz, Portageville, Mo., first vice president; Miss Frances Fendler, Manila, Ark., second vice president; Miss Belle Wigdor, Charleston, Mo., recording secretary; Miss Pauline Lang, Blytheville, Ark., corresponding secreatary; Miss Gertrude Shainberg, New Madrid, Mo., treasurer, and Miss Ruth Goldberg, Osceola, Ark., reportter.

SENATOR ROY McKITTRICK

From Salisbury Press-Spectator:

Senator Roy McKittrick, who has announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the office of Attorney General, was born in Chariton County in 1887, where he has lived all his life.

He was admitted to the bar in 1909; was elected Prosecuting Attorney of Chariton County in 1914, re-elected in 1916, and again in 1918. Congressman W. W. Rucker and Senator McKittrick are the only two men in the history of the county to be elected to the office for three terms.

Senator McKttrick made a record as a courageous and fearless prosecutor, and enforced the law without fear or favor. After leaving the office of Prosecuting Attorney, he entered in the general practice of law, and has won for himself the name and distinction as one of the best lawyers in North Missouri.

In 1930, he made the race for State Senator in the Sixth Senatorial District. In the primary he carried Salisbury, his home town, 934 to 98, and was elected in November by a majority of 3644, the largest majority ever given a Democrat who had opposition.

Senator McKittrick was married to Miss Zulah Chrane in 1912, and has one scn ten years of age.

At the age of 18 years he began making speeches for the Democratic party, and since that time has been on the firing line in every campaign, fighting with a vigor and enthusiasm that few men possess.

Senator McKittrick is an able and eloquent speaker; sincere, honest and courageous. He merits your support.

Tom Dodge Praises McKittrick

From Milan Standard:

Friends and admirers of which there are many in this section of the State, are grateful to know that in Senator Roy McKittrick of Salisbury, we have such an able candidate for the nomination on the Democratic ticket for Attorney General. Mr. McKittrick, by his record in the last session of the State legislature, proved his ability as a lawyer as well as faithfuly representing the people of his, the Sixth District. There is only one reason we would hate to see Roy McKitrrick nominated and elected Attorney General of Missouri, and that is, we need him so badly as Senator from the judicial district. The office of Attorney General of Missouri certainly needs a man like Roy McKittrick and we venture to say there will be no Young Bros., Inc., scandal committed in the office with McKittrick at the head of it.

SCHOOL NOTES FROM NEW MADRID COUNTY

After this date, the State Department will charge a fee of $3 for renewal of the State certificates, fee to accompany return of old certificate.

Anna Brock and DeLouris Meatte, Conran, have added their names to the M. S. T. A. list, whcih makes Conran 100 per cent.

In the October Bulletin, the State Department urges that school boards see that teachers have valid certificates. Teachers who teach without a certificate not only forfeit their salaries, but are subject to a fine of $100.

Any board planning a new building should make use of the free service offered by the State. The State now has a man employed who specializes in building construction, and his advice may prevent many a costly error. All architects are not school architects as may be witnessed by some blunders in our own county.

School bus drives must have a chauffeur's license and be at least 18 years of age. They must also sign a contract and furnish a bond. School busses should carry liability insurance during the term of school. A total liability of $50,000 is recommended for a vehicle of more than 24-passenger capacity.

We had a complaint last week from a parent whose children are transported in a bus not carrying liability insurance. An accident would place the board in a very embarrassing position.

Infantile paralysis, tuberculosis, pneumonia, influenza, diptheria, scarlet fever, measles, whooping cough, cerebro-spinal memingitis, smallpox, chickenpox, German measles, septic sore throat, and last but not least, common colds, are transmitted in schools by children drinking out of the same cup. The common drinking cup for public use is a menace, and we are glad to see many of the rural schools requiring individual drinking cups.

At 1:30 p. m. each school day, the American School of the Air is broadcasting to the schoos of the United States. This work deals with geography, history, literature, music and civics. Teachers' manual may be had for these programs.

The St. Louis teachers have just put out "Early Journeys in Science", which gives material to follow work laid out for Elementary Science. Books two and three are good for the intermediate grades.

CAIRO HIGH 26 BULLDOGS ZERO

A heavier, more experienced Cairo High School team blanked the visiting Sikeston Bulldogs last Saturday afternoon by a score of 26 to 0.

Miller tried to find a winning combination by substituting freely, but the Cairoites easily maintained their early game lead. Nevertheless, local followers are of the opinion that the Bulldogs occasionally displayed brilliant style, and played good defensive football most of the afternoon.

Caldwell more than held his own in the punting divison, sending long spirals down the field time after time to give his team mates additional breathing spells.

One of the features of the game from the Sikeston angle fell the lot of Harry Young, signal barker on the local eleven. Harry pulled the ancient "stolen ball' stunt, and captured the popular fancy of spectators from Sikeston and Cairo alike. Young accompanied a Cairo back in the general direction of the Sikeston goal line, grabbed the ball from the startled Cairo player and wheeled for a sixteen yard gain before the opposing safety could drag him to earth.

Theoretically at least the Bulldogs will rest this week in preparation for their ancient rivals, Charleston who play here November 26, in the annual Turkey Day clash. Actually this week and the first two days of the next will be spent in intensive work, chalk talk, scrimmage and signal work.

Mrs. Ralph Harper, Mrs. Lee Bowman and Mrs. Sammers of St. Louis visited in Cairo, Saturday.

MILDEST OCTOBER SINCE 1900, SAYS WEATHER BUREAU

Last month was the mildest October in Northern Missouri since 1900, and the mildest for the State as a whole since 1924, it was reported in the monthly summary just issued from the federal weather bureau.

The average temperature for the entire State was 62 degrees, four degrees above normal. A maximum temperature of 95 was reported at two statons, Dean in McDonald County, and Doniphan in Ripley County, while the lowest was 27 degrees at one of the Ozark stations.

The rainfall was 3.45 inches as compared with the 60-year normal of 2.89 inches. The largest monthy total was 6.82 inches in McDonald County, while the heaviest 84-hour fall was 3.02 inches in Nodaway County.

There were few local frosts but the first general killing frost did not occur until November 6 to equal the 1927 record which is about three weeks later than normal.

The summary stated that from an economic standpoint, as favoring the general public, the weather was about ideal. Coal and other fuel distributors complained somewhat of the slackness of trade because of the prevailing mile weather.

Rev. Margraves moved from Sikeston Monday to the parsonage at Richwoods Church.

Sergeant Max Jackson, U. S. A., stationed at Farmington, came down Monday for inspection of National Guard.

Sam P. Rady, State Highway workman, left Saturday evening for a two weeks' visit with his mother in Gipson City, Ill., and with friends in Chicago.

Business was quite brisk with the merchants of Sikeston Saturday. The day was fine and brought people to town from miles around.

Mr. and Mrs. Dubart League of St. Louis returned to their home in St. Louis Sunday, after a pleasant visit with the former's sister, Mrs. H. J. Welsh.

Expert Attention to Your Electrical Needs by People You Know

SERVICE

Our world has been organized to depend upon Electricity. Nearly everything that we buy has in it the cost of power for its making: clothing, as well as hardware, lumber and all the rest that goes to construct our shelters and the preparation of foodstuffs by which we are nourished.

having played so important a part in the production of the essentials of life, power continues to serve us in the work of our homes where in refrigeration, cooking, lighting, cleaning and the moving of countless devices that add to the ease and comfort of living it has become important. It is the great economic factor of today.

Then, combined with the power plant, the machinery that produces electricity, there must be a HUMAN organization —an organization dedicated to service, every ready day or night. There must be no stopping, no cessation of this service.

STANLEY'S RODEO ROUND-UP "RIDES" 25

Twenty-five men, women and children were rounded up Friday night by Sheriff A. E. Stanley of New Madrid County at the notorious Rodeo, near LaForge, loaded into a truck and carted to jail or before a justice in New Madrid. One member of the party is said to have been a prominent Sikeston business man.

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE FOR SPARE TIME WORK

Exceptional Opportunity for Ambitious Men and Women—Whole or Part Time May Be Devoted to Effort

Sikeston Standard Guarantees Weekly Pay to All Who Will Work—You Can Earn from $5 to $120 Per Week—Start Now!

The Twice-a-Week Sikeston Standard, wanting to do its part in promoting the return of prosperity, today offers the men and women of Sikeston and surrounding districts, big pay every week in exchange for their spare time. The plan is an entirey new idea, yet a simple one, for it not only gives men and women a weekly wage, but affords them the opportunity of earning the choice of beautiful automobiles, trips, or large sums of cash.

The object of this subscription drive is to secure a paid-in-advance subscriber in every home in this trade territory and at the same time offer everyone a chance to make some extra money. It will be pleasant work, for although the Sikeston Standard has an excellent circulation list there are a number of people not now taking it who will be glad to subscribe, if asked. Then there are others who are regular subscribers who will be anxious to renew their subscriptions; some of these are in arrears and collecting back accounts earns just as many credits as getting new subscriptions.

Compensation for All

The person who proves to be the best salesman or saleslady will, on December 23rd, be given the choice of a Chevrolet, a Plymouth, or a Ford, or a magnificent tour of Europe or the cash cost of the tour to this newspaper, which is $600. The second grand award will be the choice of a delightful trip to California, with all expenses paid or the cash cost of the trip, which is $200. The workers finishing third, fourth, fifth and sixth, will each receive special cash awards in addition to the twenty per cent paid each week.

It costs nothing to enter this big campaign and earn a valuable award. Compensation is promised to every worker who carries on an active campaign and secures subscriptions.

There can be no loses. However, some will reap a greater harvest than others, depending upon the demonstrated sales ability compared with the other workers. But no matter whether the award is a luxurious automobile, a fascinating trip, or cash, it will be splendid and extraordinary compensation for the effort and spare time put forth.

Enter Today.

Start now, today, and swing into a stride that will carry you to success. Every person whose nomination is accepted is free to enlist the aid of friends and associates. Secure a receipt book at once from the campaign department and start your march toward victory. Early subscriptions earn more credits than those secured late in the campaign; the early weeks are the best.

Turn now to the large announcement on pages four and five. Clip the entry blank and bring or send it to the Sikeston Standard. The time is very short, so make up your mind now to enter, for you will be richly rewarded. The more you do the more you get, for the minimum guarantee to you is one dollar out of every five dollars you collect in subscriptions. You can make your compensation what you wish, from a 20 per cent commission to a high powered automobile, a tour of Europe or $600 in cash.

LOCAL BOY WINS 10-ROUND BOUT

Babe O'Brien, Los Angeles lightweight who is making his headquarters in Sikeston this winter, went ten rounds Friday night with Slim Weaver to a close decision before the South Broadway Athletic Club, Poplar Bluff. While here O'Brien is making his home at the Ed Albright home on Gladys St.

Fight and mat cards seem to be gaining in favor in the district. Edgar Davie of Carbondale, mat expert, has scheduled several cards in Southern Illinois, Kentucky and Illinois. Local Legionnaires have for some time considered sponsoring fights, and it seems now that with O'Brien here willing to assist in promotion, and Davie anxious to appear locally, that local fight fans may yet see their favorite sport in local rings.

LOCAL BOY ASSISTS NEW MADRID LIONS IN PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT

A rush call Friday morning from the director of a Lions Club play "Oh Professor" at New Madrid for the character "Dave Crandall" was answered by Louis Walker who portrayed that part here several months ago.

The play had been widely advertised, tickets had been sold, and the cast was ready to present the college comedy when the leading man became suddenly ill—too ill to participate—on the date of the play.

Walker carried the show during the local performance and with a three or four-hour review of the manuscript made a creditable showing at New Madrid.

SCEOND SCOUT TRAINING COURSE TO BE THURSDAY

The second meeting of the Sikeston Training Course will be held at the Methodist Church basement here Thursday evening. According to Scout executives it is not too late for men in this district to enroll. Training course classes are held monthly.

Mrs. M. C. Cunningham of Desloge is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Dover.

SGT. REED TO REPORT FOR ROAD PATROL DUTY NEXT MONDAY MORNING

Sergant Rufus R. Reed, not captain as previously stated, of the Missouri Highway Patrol, is spending the week in Sikeston following graduation exercises held last Saturday in St. Louis marking the completion of a six-weeks' term of preparation and study. He will report for assignment to duty next Monday at Jefferson City, and will immediately begin his duties together with other members of Missouri's new Highway Patrol. Eight patrolmen will be stationed in this district of the State, comprising some twenty-four counties.

Definite and official highway regulations to be enforced by the patrol were published in The Standard last week. Of these a few will receive particular attention of patrolmen. Drivers who insist upon passing other cars on the crest of hills or at curves will be arrested. There is no speed limit on Missouri highways, but reckless driving will lead to trouble, Reed stated.

And one item mentioned may save local motorists a bit of roadside embarrassment. License plates must be kept "reasonably" clean, according to law, and patrolmen have been instructed to stop motorists who do not obey this regulation and to oversee the cleaning operation then and there.

Members of the patrol have also received instructions to enforce the recent Missouri law requiring wagons and other vehicles to carry tail lights after dark. Statistics show that many accidents are caused by not displaying danger lights, and a law requiring farmers and others who use the highways after nightfall with wagons and farm implements to display either a light or reflector was passed by the last session of the Legislature.

FRANK TROUSDALE WITH WHIZ BANG STORE

The Whiz Bang Store has secured the services of Frank Trousdale of this city in their department store. Frank is a graduate of the Sikeston High School, has been all over the United States and parts of Arkansas, is polite and agreeable and will be a valuable acquisition to the Whiz Bang Store.

HOLDUP SUSPECTS HELD UP FRIDAY

Being halted by officers of the law at 1:30 o'clock in the morning and questioned as hold-up suspects, was the experience of Miss Hyacinth Sheppard, Standard linotype operator; Mrs. Ruth Malone, secretary to Dr. T. C. McClure, and Daniel Malone, high school student.

The Sikeston party was enroute to St. Louis having left home at 9:00 o'clock Thursday evening, so that Daniel Malone might participate in the All-State High School orchestra Friday night, held in connection with the State Teachers' Association meeting in that city.

A car whizzed out of a filing station just north of Crystal City and doggedly set in to follow the Sheppard machine. Lights flashed and soon the wierd moan of a police siren sent a chill through the Sikeston party. They realized that they were being followed. There followed a hasty rearangement of valuables and money. Then came the surprise.

Two men approached the local party and after preliminaries were over, members of the Sikeston group realized that they were being questioned by police. The spokesman for the officers informed them that a holdup had been committed earlier in the evening. He glanced suspiciously at Daniel Malone's violin case—it might have contained a machine gun, and the Sheppard car, he said, tallied exactly with the description of the robber's automobile.

Then two women began talking, explaining and soon the officers were routed before a verbal barrage. They withdrew in apologetic confusion and the Sikeston party continued to St. Louis.

WILL HOLD PRELIMINARY HEARING THURSDAY IN QUERTERMOUS-BENNETT CASE

Henry Bennett and Merrel Davis will probably face preliminary hearing next Thursday afternoon before Judge Jos. W. Myers on charges of assault and battery, trespass and disturbing the peace. The various charges are the outgrowth of a disturbance Friday morning on the Handy Smith farm just east of the city, in which Hobart Quertermous, 34, and Bennett figured prominently.

According to the latter, he and Davis were "just knocking around as boys will" on land farmed by the Quertermous family. They were not hunting, he claims, and did not even have a gun. Quertermous ordered the boys from his land, and acording to Bennett "got hard". Bennett invited him off his land to settle the difficulty During the fight near Highway 60, Quertermous was injured when struck by Bennett, and was brought to the Emergency Hospital, where a scalp and cheek wound were treated. He was released Sunday morning.

Leonard and N. S. Quertermous appeared on the scene shortly after the altercation, and marched Bennett and Davis to town at the point of a gun, so the boys allege.

THIS IS MAJESTIC WEEK AT DEMPSTERS

Vernon R. Erickson, special representative of the Majestic Manufacturing Company, St. Louis, makers of ranges known the country over, is conducting a special demonstration this week at Dempster's Furniture Store.

All of the original ideas are incorporated in the new ranges which boast additional points of superiority. Various colors are obtainable to harmonize with modern kitchen decoration schemes.

Mr. Erickson not only points out new conveniences, but explains in detail various features often overlooked by the prospective stove buyer.

AUXILIARY NOTES

The Auxiliary of the American Legion will meet with Mrs. C. L. Blanton, Sr., Wednesday evening. All members will come prepared to make a report on the disposal of the embroidered sheet and pillow slips.

George Lough, manager of the local Buckner-Ragsdale Store, returned Monday morning from an eight-day buying trip to eastern markets. While in New York, Mr. Lough attended a convention of Associated Clothiers.

PUBLIC INVITED TO MUSIC CLUB PROGRAM FRIDAY

The pubic is invited to attend a program at the Methodist church next Friday afternoon November 20 at 3:30 o'clock at which time members of the Apolo Music Club will present an interesting arrangement of vocal, piano and organ numbers.

Those who will appear on the program include, Mrs. Ralph Anderson, Mrs. Tom Allen, Miss Ellen Caverno, Miss Kathryn Clark, Mrs. Arch Russell, Mrs. H. J. Welsh, Mrs. Frank W. Van Horne and Mrs. H. E. Reuber. Frederick Claibourne, teacher of instrumental music, Cape Girardeau, will assist. The Club now has a total enrollment of thirty-nine members.

CLAIM FIND OF HUGE TREASURE IN MEXICO

Mexico City.—Ernesto Loeck, a German who has hunted for a treasure in Mexico for 20 years, is here making arrangements with the Government for supervision and troops to aid him when he breaks open a claim in the State of Michoacan he thinks is worth $25,000,000.

The treasure he thinks he has found is that of the Tarascan King Calzontzin, who disappeared in 1522 following the Spanish conquest, and who is thought to have drowned while fighting the Spaniards who subdued Michoacan the year after the Mexican conquest. Only part of the King's treasure was found.

Loeck began the search in 1909. A few months ago he discovered the opening of an underground passage on the summit of LaBates de Oro. The passage was filled with debris, and Loeck and a companion cleared it for a distance of nearly 300 feet as they descended reguarly formed stairs along which were inscriptions.

At the end of this hall, Loeck says, he came on the mummy of a woman, behind which was constructed a wall, which he and the companion broke through until they were stopped by an intolerable odor.

He has requested the Treasury Department, which has supervision over national treasure, to send observers back with him to check the Government's 50 per cent share of the treasure, if it is uncovered, and to give him sufficient guarantees when he opens the supposed storehouse.

RUMMAGE SALE NETS WOMAN'S CLUB $42.50

Mrs. J. L. Tanner was hostess to the Woman's Club, Tuesday afternoon, November 10. A business session was conducted in a very efficient way by Mrs. Arch Russell, the president of the Club. Interesting and entertaining reports of the Annual Ninth District Woman's Club meeting were given by Mrs. Calvin Greer, Mrs. C. L. Blanton and Mrs. Russell. That meeting was held at Kennett. Mrs. R. L. Burns arranged the music for the meeting at Kennett and will serve in that capacity for the meeting next year which will be held at Farmington. The next meeting of the Sikeston Woman's Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Welsh, November 24.

The rummage sale held by the Club Saturday, yielded them $42.50. This sale was managed and directed by Mrs. H. E. Reuber.

TO DEDICATE U. D. C. MARKER AT CAPE SUNDAY

According to an announcement by Mrs. Glenn Hope, president of the Cape Girardeau U. D. C. Chapter, the public is invited to attend a dedication program next Sunday afternoon, 2:30 o'clock in that city, at which time a Confederate Memorial will be unveiled. The stone is located at the Missouri side of the bridge approach, at the end of Morgan and Oak Streets.

A. F. Lindsay and family of Cape Girardeau were Sikeston visitors Saturday.

RED CROSS TOTAL REACHES $800 HERE

Although returns are still incomplete, a preliminary report received Monday from Red Cross workers and C. C. White, County Treasurer, indicate that the annual Roll Call Drive started last Thursday, will be a success, at least as far as Sikeston is concerned.

According to Mr. White, a total of $655 had been deposited in the bank, although only 93 memberships were accounted for by his office. The balance of membership cards were held by F. E. Mount, County Chairman, who could not be reached Monday afternoon for a statement.

A committee composed of M. M. Beck and E. F. Schorle, reported to The Standard that their returns on Malone Avenue were in the neighborhood of $80, which sends the total to $735. H. C. Young, one of the captains in Ward 2, stated Monday evening that colections in that district would be about $56, which brings total collections officially and unofficially accounted for to $791. Other committees have yet to make a final report before the drive closes a week from Friday.

WOMAN 72 YEARS OLD KILLED WHEN STRUCK BY CAR NEAR MOREHOUSE

Mrs. Anna Simmons, 72 years old, died at the Charles Bradshaw home, Morehouse, at midnight Friday about ten hours after being struck by a car driven by Luther Vowels, farmer living east of Charleston. The accident happened on Hgihway 60 near the Bob Calvin grove, about one and one-half miles east of Morehouse.

Acording to Dr. I. H. Dunaway, physician who attended the aged woman, she had walked and "hitch hiked" to New Madrid, where she appeared before the County Court with a request for financial assistance.

The Court gave her an order on a Morehouse grocery. She was on her way back from New Madrid, walking, and just previous to the accident had stopped a wagon and secured permission to ride. In climbing into the conveyance, she dropped her handkerchief, and stooped to pick it up, when the Volwels car, east bound, struck her. She suffered a fractured left arm, right leg and severe scalp lacerations.

She was taken first to the office of Dr. Dunaway, who treated her injuries, and then removed to the Bradshaw home, where she died some ten hours later.

So far as can be learned, Mrs. Simmons is originally from Arkansas, but has no known relatives. Mrs. Bradshaw, herself the mother of eighteen chidren, felt sorry for her and had agreed to allow her to remain at the home for the winter. Neither Mr. or Mrs. Bradshaw are related to Mrs. Simmons.

New Madrid County will probably be asked to assist with burial expenses although arangements could not be learned late Saturday evening.

ARMY OF FEDERAL PROHI SPEND FRIDAY 'DRYING UP' NEW MADRID COUNTY

A young army of Federal dry agents assisted by deputies assembled at the Sensenbaugh "Y" station south of town Friday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock, using that highway intersection as a point of the dragnet which extended from one corner of New Madrid County to the other. Eleven such agents comprised the flying squadron which closed in on large and small operators in the neighboring county, and sent dry law violators before John A. Ferguson, United States Commissioner in Cape Girardeau.

Agents and deputies were dressed as cotton pickers, farm hands, day laborers, lumber men and a few in ordinary business suits. Under cover men had played their cards well, as is shown by the large number of arrests made. Part of the squadron was drafted from St. Louis to assist agents from the recently created Poplar Bluff and Cape Girardeau offices.

Each of the eleven alleged violators was placed under $100 bond for appearance in Federal Court, Cape Girardeau, April 11. By Friday night four of the group had been released on bond.

According to the Southeast Missourian Saturday, the following men were captured in the New Malrid County raids:

Chares G. Kassell, the Cape Girardeau County man, possession of moonshine still.

George Stewart, sales, 10 miles northeast of East Prairie.

Cecil Stewart, possession, same place, son of George Stewart.

Ben F. Mason, possession, New Madrid.

Mrs. Ben F. Mason, sale, New Madrid.

O. B. Williams, sale, Marston.

Remas Avery, possession, Marston.

Edward Wright, sale and possession, near Morehouse.

John Dunfee, sale and possession, Morehouse.

Freeman Reeves, sale and possession, Morehouse.

John F. Twitty, sale of liquor and possession of still, between Morehouse and Sikeston.

Charles Hall, sale and possession, Morehouse.

Richard R. Price, possession, south of Sikeston.

John Holder, possession, south of Sikeston.

Another still was found by the agents, they said at the John F. Twitty place, which is located a mile south of Highway 60. between Morehouse and Sikeston. Twitty is charged with making a sale of liquor to the agents, and the small still was confiscated. It was not set up, and way poorly hidden in a hay stack near the house.

The still was evdiently a crude outfit, and capable of turning off only liquor of a poor quality and slowly. A gallon and a half of home brew beer was found, according to the agents.

Southeast of Sikeston. George Stewart and his son, Cecil, were arrested, the liquor allegedly being found in the basement of the house. Five gallons of whisky, a half gallon of gin, and 15 gallons of mash were found, according to the agents' report. Stewart and his son were at home.

Arrest Husband, Wife

Ben F. Mason and Mrs. Mason were arested at their home in New Madrid, and Mrs. Masone is said to have made the sale to the agents, who said they easily made the "buy'. Home brew, 86 pints of it, 3 quarts of colored whisky and 16 gallons of brew was in the house.

Raids in Morehouse

Dunfee was arrested in Morehouse, and the agents found 37 quarts of home brew beer and three quarts of whisky. Dunfee's charge is sale and possession.

Freeman Reeves was also arrested in Morehouse and a pint of whisky was discovered there.

Charles Hall of Morehouse, charged with selling and possessing liquor, the agents said had 21 pints of beer and three quarts of whisky on hand.

Price and Holder were both found at a rural home in New Madrid County, a short distance south of Sikeston. A small amount of brewed spirits and a half gallon of whisky were located.

The agents accompanied by Sheriff Lester Massingham, Deputy Wiley Owen and Chief of Police Bob Davis of Poplar Bluff, operated Friday night and early Saturday morning bringing in thirteen alleged violators, including two women. Most of the arrests were made in Poplar Bluff.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Alexander of Charleston and Mrs. Dave Thompson of Caruthersville visited Mr. and Mrs. Jos. L. Matthews Sunday. Mrs. Thompson had been the guest of her parents in Charleston and was enroute home.

AL'S HOMER A FEATURE OF U. S.-JAPAN GAME

Toshiyasu Ogawa, Japan, November 14.—A homer by Al Simmons, of the Philadelphia Athletics, which pierced the umbrella bleachers in center field was the high spot of a baseball game between the touring United States All-Stars and an all-Japan team today, played in a drizzle before 40,000 fans and won by the Americans 6 to 3.

Miss Estell McMullin of Essex was a visitor in the Jim Pitman home Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. John Fisher entertained Saturday afternoon with four tables of bridge, complimenting Mrs. T. DuBart League of St. Louis.

SIKESTON STANDARD

C. L. BLANTON, EDITOR

ISSUED TUESDAY AND FRIDAY AT SIKESTON, MISSOURI

Entered at the Postoffice at Skeston, Scott County, Missouri, as second-class mail matter, according to act of Congress.

Rates:
Reading notices, per line.....10c
Bank statements $10.00
Yearly subscription in Scott and the adjoining counties $1.50
Yearly subscription elsewhere in the United States $2.00

You will observe from the double page spread that the Standard is putting on a subscription contest, not because we do not now have the largest list of any paper serving this trritory, but to get our books in order for an audit soon after the first of the year, and to collect all subscriptions due us, or drop them from the list. The price of The Twice-a-Week Sikeston Standard is now $1.50 per year and will continue at this rate until this contest campaign closes, after which the price will be advanced to $2.00 per year whether it is worth it or not. We would like very much for The Standard to go into the homes of everyone in the Sikeston trade territory as the advertising messages alone will be worth many times the price of the subscription. We are saying nothing about the entertainment features of the paper, though we will do our best to furnish reliable news, and give our views editorially on any and all subjects that come before us. Renewals at $1.50 per year will be in order until the first of the new year after which the $2.00 rate will be in effect.

Sunday, November 15, was another of those spring days, no furnace fires, doors and windows open and a well dressed girl of 8 or 10 years on the street bare footed. Can you beat it?

It certainly is strange how a few lines in a newspaper will cause boys to kick the ball with a vengance. The coach tells us that every time the boys in practice kicked the pig skin they said: "this is the seat of the britches of the fellow who said we wore skirts." Anyway, it got results in practice games.

Boston is in trouble. On a World War memorial lately erected in that city, the words "conspicuously" and "intrepidity" are found to be misspelled. The first impulse is to deride Boston's culture and suggest the old-fashioned spelling bee, but anyone is likely to make a slip. Her more serious offense is participating in the common practice of loading up votive stones with words of thundering sound. The attention of designers of war memorials is courteously directed to a bramble-hidden marker that was discovered in the South some years ago. It was inscribed only with the words: "A Georgia Volunteer".

The records show that more than three hundred undesirable aliens, whom the government wished to deport, have been killed off in gang warfare. A bad man who sneaks into a country where he is not wanted, of course does not deserve to be shot on general principles, and no one would attempt to justify gang homicides on any ground, yet it happens that in the strange working of the affairs of this world, some good has come from the operation of the extremely hateful agency mentioned. On the other hand, no one can be proud of the fact that immigration laws were enforced by thugs.

The Standard editor is told that some high handed pressure is being used in an endeavor to squeeze money from already overburdened merchants in Sikeston and other cities and towns. Friday last one merchant of this city informed us of four calls in one day to give money for advertising space in church papers, directories, school programs and civic enterprises in this and other communities. This merchant felt that he could not stand the pressure and politely declined to have his allotment for legitimate advertising squandered in such manner. One of the high powered brothers of a church sect intimated that if the merchant did not take advertising space in his scheme that his church people would trade elsewhere. These skin game advertising schemes should not be allowed as they are worthless to the merchant.

The editor put in several hours the past week taking up roots and bulbs and putting them in the basement for winter. This sort of work was a gentle reminder that we were not as young as we used to be as the work almost played us out. However, the work was satisfactorily done.

Bishop Cannon says the reason he was indicted in the District of Columbia was because there were 12 Catholics on the panel of 24 to select from. Bishop Cannon was looking for a bunch of his brethren on the jury like those at Atlanta, Ga., who, by a vote of 12 to 1, suspended the Rev. Rembert G. Smith of Sparta, Ga., for criticising Bishop Cannon. Now if the Catholic District Attorney at Washington can only pack his trial jury with all Catholices, we believe Bishop Cannon will get his just dues—an acquittal or a conviction.

The Japanese and Chinese are going at each other in real warlike fashion in Manchuria. The question now occupying the minds of neutral experts on the situation is whether or not Russia will be drawn into the fracas. Japan is not particularly interested in having to cross swords with Russia. China might not object to the entrance of Russia into the war, since her chances of winning Russian friendship are better than those of Japan. Russia has her Five Year Plan to absorb all of her energies at home, and is willing to keep her finger out of the pie, if possible. However it goes, there is business on hand for the League of Nations and for the adjusters of pre-war, war, and post-war difficulties.

The old myth that hogs cannot be poisoned still lingers and is believed to be true by some. Mostly by those however that think vaccination against hog cholera is of no value. The origin of the belief that hogs were immune to poison arose from the fact when any animal is poisoned if you can get quantities of lard down its throat it will counteract the poison to some extent and is one of the best known antidotes. A hog being the lard producing animal was given credit of having this antidote on hand ready for an emergency. The facts are the lard on a hog has nothing to do with his intestinal affairs and any strong acids, lye, strychnine, arsenic or deadly poison of like nature will kill a hog as quick as any other animal.—La-Plata Home Press.

POOR HOUSE—STRAIGHT AHEAD

The price-cutter is worse than a criminal. He is a fool. He not only pulls down the standing of his goods; he not only pulls down his competitors; he pulls down himself and his whole trade. He scuttles ship in which he himself is afloat.

Nothing is so easy as to cut the prices; and NOTHING IS SO HARD AS TO GET THEM BACK when once they have been pulled down. Any child can throw a glass of water on the floor, but all the scientists in the world can't pick that water up.

Who gets the benefit of price-cutting? Nobody. The man who sells makes no net profit; and the man who buys soon finds himself getting an inferior article. No manufacturer can permanently keep up the standard of his goods if the price is persistently cut. Pretty soon he is compelled to use cheaper materials, and cut down the wages of his workers.

The man who cuts prices puts out the sign: "This way to the junk-heap!" He admits his own failure as a salesman. He admits he has been defeated according to the Marquis of Queensbury rules of business. He admits he cannot win by fighting fair. He brands himself as a hitter-below-the belt. If the business world were dominated by price-cutters, there would be no usiness at all. Price cutting, in fact, is is not business any more than smallpox is health.—Branding Iron.

WANTS TO KNOW "IF MISSOURI INDIANS MUST HAVE FISHING LICENSES"

Hundreds of inquiries concerning Missouri's outdoor life, from, "Do the Indians of Missouri have fishing licenses?" to "What is the best method to raise fish worms?" are answered annually by the bureau of public information of the Missouri Game and Fish Department, in addition to hundreds more inquiries concerning the opportunities and possibilities of this state's out-of-doors.

This inquiry service is conducted in addition to the general educational work of the department through newspapers, magazines, radio motion pictures, exhibits, maps, and bulletins.

A comprehensive file of information and sources is maintained by the bureau for the use of persons interested in the conservation and restoration of wild life resources and kindred subjects.

The New All-Enamel

Majestic Range

Has Every Modern Convenience Without Changing Your Fuel . . . Kitchens Cool and Pleasant While Cooking

Here is the finest Kitchen Range you ever saw—a marvel of efficiency and convenience. It represents the experience of years in the scientific development of home cooking facilities. It holds the heat inside the stove, concentrated on the cooking and baking, instead of wasting it in heating up the kitchen. It is a delight to work with; a beautiful thing to own.

Advanced Construction

This New Majestic is as great an improvement over old-time stoves as the modern automobile is over the old-fashioned high bicycle. Practical requirements have been studied under actual working conditions. Hundreds of experiments and tests have been made. The final result is a triumph in efficiency and handiness.

Complete insulation concentrates the heat around the oven, where heat is needed. The outside is comparatively cool. The solid polished top cooking plate is more sanitary and easier to clean than lids. The sanitary shelf, the easy clean-out features, and the removable doors and stakes make this the neatest of ranges. Precisely-fitting doors increase its cleanliness and its remarkable cooking and heat-tight qualities.

For a Cool and Beautiful Kitchen

Not only will such a Range as this lighten your work and give you surer results—its beauty will be a constant source of pride. Its new all-enamel finish—in Ivory, Apple Green, Gray, White or Blue—blending with any color decoration—is easily kept spick and span. You wipe it off as quickly as a china dish. The New Majestic gives you a kitchen you're proud to show—one that's always cool and comfortable to work in.

"Pay-as-you-use-it" Plan

Don't envy your neighbor who has this wonderful modern aid to good housekeeping—get one for yourself! It's so easy. You can pay for it as you use it; a little down, small regular payments that you can spread over many months! No interest; no carrying charges; no extra cost! We'll gladly install one of these wonderful New Ranges in your kitchen on this easy-payment basis.

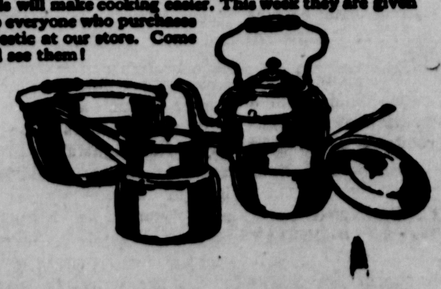

Your Opportunity

This is a real opportunity. Take advantage of it. No longer need you be handicapped with poor or worn out equipment. No one can do good work without good tools. Your kitchen range is the most important tool in your daily work. Once you realize how much time and effort it saves, how it makes everything "turn out right," and what a real joy it is to own, you would not be without it for any amount of money.

This week the factory man is here. Come in and let him explain how the New Majestic will lighten your work, help you do better work, and give you a kitchen to be proud of.

PARMA TO ORGANIZE FOUR 4-H CLUBS THIS WEEK

In a letter to County Extension Agent Scott M. Julian, Mrs. Solon Gee, chairman of the 4-H Club committee of the Parma Hone and Community Club, stated that boys and girls of Parma had requested that Poultry Club; Garment Making 1 Club, and Garment Making 11 Club. Club, and Garment Making 11 cub. Professor Miller who is taking an active interest in club work has set the organization day at Tuesday, November 10. It is quite likely that there will be two pig clubs as there are more boys wanting to belong to a pig club than one leader can successfully handle. Good local leaders have also been secured for each of these clubs. Last year Parma had two 4-H clubs, both of which completed successfully. The Pig Club at Canalou under the leadership of Owen J. Taul is making rapid advance. The pigs are all in fine shape and the boys and girls taking care of them like veteran hog raisers.

Each Home and Community Club has a 4-H club committee, and it is expected that in the very near future a number of other clubs will be organized at these different points where home and community clubs exist at the present time. Communities which do not have home and community clubs will also be given the opportunity of 4-H Clubs.

PREPARING POULTRY FOR MARKET

Many farm chickens and turkeys reach the market in poor condition because they are not killed and bled properly. Hang up the bird by its feet on a wire hook. When killing it, grasp it by the bony part of the skull. Don't hold a bird by the neck—this often causes discolored spots. Use a sharp-pointed, narrow-bladed knife. Make a small cut inside the mouth on the right side of the throat, cutting downward and to the right. Thrust the knife through the groove along the middle of the roof of the mouth until it pierces the brain. Hanging the bird head down and braining it carefully make it bleed well. Poorly bled poultry shows dark, blood-filled veins and reddened areas of skin, which mar the appearancee and make the flesh spoil more quickly.

POPCORN TO BE PLANTED ON 1000 S. E. MO. ACRES

Poplar Bluff, Mo., Nov. 13.—One thousand acres of Southeast Missouri farm land in 46 farms owned by a St. Louis insurance company, will be planted to popcorn during the coming year, O. L. Holland, head of the company, said here yesterday.

Holland is making a tour of farms owned by his concern, and is giving instructions to tenants relative to production of the best grade of popcorn.

Declaring that 50 acres on his farm near Goff, Kan., produced 1,000 bushels of popcorn during the past summer and that the net proceeds totaled about $3.50 per bushel when he marketed the crop himself, Holland is of the opinion that popcorn promises to be one of the most valuable cash crops for the middle west, providing marketed correctly.

The small tract in Kansas brought gross returns during the year of $3,500, he said.

HYDE REFUSES EXTENSION OF MISSOURI DUCK SEASON

Secretary of Agriculture Hyde, in a letter to Frank A. Habig, president of the Missouri Duck Hunters' Association, announces that the duck shooting season in Missouri will not be extended to Dec. 1, as was requested by the association.

Secretary Hyde explained that ducks are scarce and, if the season should be extended in Missouri, it would be necessary to make similar concessions in other states. The purpose of the short season is to better hunting conditions in future years, Hyde explains. The season in Missouri opened Oct. 20 and will close Nov. 19.

A doctor who charged a sick man twenty-eight thousand dollars for one hundred and sixty-five visits, is explaining his bill in the probate court. The sum of twenty-eight thousand dollars seems like a good deal of money, but no doubt the charge was reasonable, and as easily explained as the fee of the surgeon, who wrote, in response to a request for an itemized statement: "To repairing and resetting 1½ yards of intestine at $200 per yard, $300".

CATHOLIC PAPER LAYS DOWN RULES FOR GIRLS

A 12 o'clock girl is a nuisance and a torment to a 10 o'clock family, it is observed by St. Sebastian's Chronicle, publication of St. Sebastian's Catholic church in Milwaukee.

To relieve the 10 o'clock family and promote the welfare of the 12 o'clock girl, the Chronicle lays down rules of conduct for the modern girl. Some of the admonitions are as follows:

"Don't parade the streets with an 'all dressed up and nowhere particular to go' air, hoping to be picked up by the first nice looking boy who happens to be passing. There is far too much casual informality these days.

"Always tell your mother where you are going, and with whom. Don't deceive her, and return on time.

"Don't be misled by charming male admirers who affect 'something for nothing benevolence.' Don't accept presents of clothing, jewelry or money from them.

"Don't let fellows treat you to intoxicating liquor, privately or publicly.

"Don't attach too much importance to cosmetics and facial makeup. A gentle disposition and refined characc-

GREASING SERVICE
No Longer Need You Try to Make One Grease Do the Work of Seven

Watchmakers use a thin non-oxidizing oil to lubricate the delicate parts of a time piece. The whining reducing gears of a hugh steam turbine, revolving at terrific speed, require a thick, heavy coating of oil to quench the tremendous friction produced.

A special lubricant is needed for each.

Yet, most motorists ignore this fact when applied to the car which they are driving. They have never considered that there are vast differences in greases, just as there are in motor oils and gasoline. No one grease can hope to effectually lubricate all parts. Modern specialized lubrication is necessary to keep step with improvements in the highly developed cars of today. Old methods must be discarded. The timeworn slogan, "One for all and all for one" doesn t hold for greases.

These diversified Quaker State greases place a smooth, protecting, compelling finger exactly on each moving part of your car which needs a special lubricant. Thick greases, thin greases, soft greases, hard greases—all have a definite function to perform.

INSIST upon Quaker State grease next time you have your car serviced. We are specialists in lubrication and we know there are no better greases than the new "7 point" greases made by Quaker State with the same care and finesse that for years has marked the famous Quaker State motor oil.

BROWN-HAHN

In Jefferson City, October 22, David Brown of that city, and Miss Eula Hahn of Sikeston were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Miss Eula is a graduate of the Sikton High School, of the Chillicothe Business College, was clerk to Senator Wammack during the last session of the Missouri Legislature, and is now employed at the Scott County Mill Co. office.

Mr. Brown is connected with the Botts Printing Co. of Jefferson City.

The bride informs us that she will join her husband in Jefferson City as soon as she finishes paying a debt of honor—money borrowed to attend business college.

The Standard wishes the couple long life and happiness, and honors the bride for her determination to pay money she borrowed for schooling.

Instances of tactics to secure business lost to the Municipal Light and Power Plant on the part of the Missouri Utilities Company which border on being unethical are rumored. Sevcific instances are on file in which owners of buildings and apartments find Utilities Co., meters installed and service connections made without specific consent of the owner. In each instance the Municipal meter was found to be disconnected. A conference between T. A. Martin, M. M. Beck and Dan G. Pepper Monday morning ended in a general denial of the practice by the Utility chiefs.

Mexico has complained now and then about the lack of respect tendered her by the United States. Times have changed in Mexico. The day for looking down upon Mexico as a second rate power is done.

Of all money making hoaxes, the unclaimed estate is the hardest to kill, having many times the nine lives of the hardy cat. A bunch of geese, probably 35 in all, flew over Jackson last Friday afternoon. Directly behind the leader there followed a young goose less than one-fourth the size of the others and was directly in line. As far as we could see the little fellow had no trouble keeping up with the rest, though it was probably his first trip south. Such a thing might be a common occurance, but it was new to us and was a real curiosity.—Jackson Cash-Book.

AS I SEE IT

By I'm About Town

After more careful consideration Doc Limbaugh would include the Palmer Institute in the 1932 football schedule of Washington and the I. C. S. in the Missouri University schedule.

We wonder whether there is a shortage of light bulbs for automobiles or what. Not in several years have we noticed as as many "one-eyed" automobiles on the highways around Sikeston. One does not know whether the approaching machine is a motorcycle or a cottonpickers' family perambulator.

And by the way, wagons on the highway after dark are required by Missouri law to display a lantern or rear light of some sort. 99 and .44 per cent of them display nothing but an end gate.

We argee in principal but not in fact with the suggestion offered by the Southeast Missourian in Cape Girardeau that the annual state teachers meeting be abandoned. The Missourian points out editorially that the state meeting is usually planned on too large a scale to be of practical benefit, and that district meetings more often fill particular needs by meeting local problems and conditions.

We offer an additional inducement for abandoment of the meetings. Only in a few isolated instances do teachers attend all meetings. More of them go shopping, go to movies or shows, or home—wherever that might be—during the sessions. We often wonder how many teachers would go voluntarily if the matter was left to a vote.

We wish to suggest that the word cute be limited in use by applying it only to some girls, all puppies, most babies, and kittens.

Depressions are fine occasionally. Some folks can't stand prosperity. And most of us learn to rearrange our view of life and living.

The Farmer-Labor leader in Congress, Shipstead is a dentist by trade which makes things come out exactly right for a change. Pull means a lot in both professions.

By way of oddities we add the story of the blind man in Cincinnati who was given a taxi drivers license. The commissioner of police, head of safety council and a group of citizens accompanied the gentleman on his qualification tour. He was not only able to obey all traffic signals, but named streets, buildings and successfully dodged all pedestrians.

We predict that "Sob Sister" which plays Thursday and Friday at the Malone Theatre will be enjoyed by everyone, except newspaper folks, who seldom stamp their approval on the overdone, unethical journalistic methods portrayed.

A one-sided battle with very ripe eggs marked the end of the Charleston-Poplar Bluff game—lost because Coach John Harris Marshall underrated the power of the visiting Mules when he substituted his second string material in the last half. With his lead vanishing rapidly, and finally disappearing altogether, the coach was in the position of the miser who starved to death sitting on a truck ful of gold.

The egg battle, we are told, had nothing to do with players or school rooters. However, a car full of Poplar Bluff girls live to attest the ability of a mere egg to make itself known in a confined space.

EAST PRAIRIE MAN GETS LEVEE CONTRACT

Memphis, Nov. 13.—Contract for the construction of about 8000 cubic yards of earthwork on the Bird's Point-New Madrid floodway levee was awarded by the Memphis engineer district yesterday to C. J. Fugate, East Prairie, Mo., at his bid price of $2,000.

Those red flannel petticoats we used to protest were old-fashioned when Grandmother begged us to don them on icy days, are fashionable today. There is nothing so gay or so chic as a flash of red flannel showing a tiny bit under a frock of heavy wool mixture. Red flannel bed jackets and red peignoirs are back again, too, along with similar warmth-giving jackets of soft challis and wool knits.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS FROM PARIS APPEAL

"Not everybody can wear an Empress Eugenie hat becomingly," says a well-known fashion authority. But every woman who tries one on is assured that she is one who can, which accounts for the universal demand for thos emonstrosities. Some women really are very cute under them. Others look like a horse and buggy.

The farming industry has been hard hit, of course, but the fact remains that a larger per cent of farm folk are living like lords than are their town and city cousins. Except in very rare instances, no relief measures are needed in order to keep soul andbody together in farm houses. More than twenty million town and city dwellers must be helped through the winter.

Ghandi ignored court etiquette. Instead of evening clothes and a silk hat, he wore nothing but his diaper and mysterious grin when attending last week's reception in Buckingham palace. The king and queen evidently were all for the diaper and smile. Anyway, they asked Ghandi to stick around for a private conference, probably so the queen could find out if he pins them on like she used to do when her princes were infants.

Mexico broke up gangster and outlaw activities some years ago. Instead of arresting them and making public heroes of them as we too often do, the order down there was to shoot them on sight. This order is still in force. Men caught in the act of robbery are in the hands of the undertaker the next morning. This probably accounts for the fact that an American is in less danger of a holdup in Mexico than in Chicago, New York or most any other big city on this side of the line.

The country is a bit suspicious of that sudden rise in the wheat market. How did it happen that nothing was known of an impending shortage in Europe until the bottoms of bins were reported to have been scraped? Where were our usually vigilant consuls, vice-consuls and trade scouts of other sorts all those weary months of 20c to 35c wheat. There are only two answers to these questions. One is that knowledge of it had been purposely suppressed by those who should have kept American farmers informed. The other is that no such shortage really exists. Time will tell.

Hog-killing time will find 99 per cent of our farm families ready for action and fat hogs at hand for the slaughter. Contrast this vision of plenty, rural friend, with the empty pantries, empty fuel bins and empty purses of ten million families in the towns and cities, and be thankful for the privilege of living where you can raise your own vegetables, fruit and meat, and where there is fuel enough and plenty to spare in your own woods. Even though market conditions are bad, it is better to have peace and plenty on the farm than worry and want elsewhere.

DRAINAGE AID PLAN IS LIKED

Many national and state business farm and drainage heads over the country have assured Julian N. Friant, secretary of the National Drainage Association, they are deeply interested in passage of the Glenn-Smith bill at the next session of Congress, as a means of making a better future for drainage and irrigation districts in the United States. Friant went to St. Louis today in interest of the movement for the bill, and will soon make a trip to Chicago.

Among those who have written letters to Friant and others supporting the measure are Congressman W. C. Hawley of Oregon, S. J. Pyeatt, now of Colorado and formerly Frisco River Division superintendent at Chaffee; E. L. Hunter of the Michigan State Drainage Commission; officers of the Colorado State Chamber of Commerce, Irrigation District Association of California; Chester Gray, farm leader at Washington, D. C.; and Rep. Garner from Texas and the Rio Grande district.

Gray has suggested a conference in Washington before the session of Congress. The California association has written that the entire agriculture West will back the measure.

Clyde D. Harris, president of the board of directors of the First National Bank her, favors the bill, and has sent letters to Illinois bankers to advise them of potential value of the legislation. A paragraph of his letter is:

"We realize the necessity of economy in national expenditures at this time. But bear in mind this is not a raid on the treasury—this is a loan, not a gift—an extension of credit, and not a donation. It is an investment, not an expense, and just as necessary as additional money for the Federal Land Banks or as an appropriation for for the National Credit Corporation, as has been proposed."—Cape Missourian.

New Car Or $600 In Cash Offered As First Award In Race For New Readers

Subscription Drive Just Started Offers Something To Every Participant—Weekly Pay To Each Worker

ENTER YOUR NAME NOW

Additional Award Being Offered For Promptness and Early Work—Subscriptions Earn More Votes Now Than Later in the Campaign

This is the opening day of the subscription campaign for The Sikeston Standard in which scores of local workers will receive big pay for their spare time. It is the aim of The Sikeston Standard to secure a reader in practically every home in the Sikeston trade teritory and at the same time give employment to many local men and women.

All who are interested in earning extra money should come at once to the office of The Sikeston Standard. Each worker is guaranteed a liberal commission of twenty per cent every Friday for the work he or she has done during the week, which means that each participant will be paid $1 out of every $5 subscription money collected and turned in to his or her credit.

This in itself is a good business proposition, but The Standard is doing much more; besides offering men and women weekly pay it is giving them the opportunity to earn the choice of a new automobile, a trip to Europe, or the cost of the trip which is $600 cash. Another person will earn the choice of a vacation trip to California or $200 cash. The persons finishing in third, fourth, fifth and sixth positions will each receive a cash bonus.

An Unusual Opportunity

This is a big proposition, created along such liberal lines that those who fail to take advantage of it are overlooking the greatest opportunity that may ever come to them. This campaign simply puts a premium on new and old subscriptions and home folks will get the benefit, for many local business firms are co-operating with The Standard and are accepting 5c coupons with every cash purchase of $1.

Everybody in this campaign will be engaged in other lines of work, which necessarily must receive first attention, but who will participate in the campaign because they are convinced that it is a worth while spare time proposition; that it is a true test of sales ability and that every detail will be caried out just as advertised. The workers will soon be calling on their friends and acquaintances for subscriptions to The Standard and when they do, remember that either a new or renewal subscription will bring untold encouragement to the worker and gives the subscriber a coupon book.

Pen-Pencil Free

Another interesting feature is that every one who enters this Weekly Payroll Subscription Campaign and turns in $20 or more with subscriptions on or before Monday, November 23, will be given a lovely "Dixie" pen-pencil combination, with a solid 14k gold pen point in an unbreakable pen holder together with a removable pencil end which has propel-repel-expel movement for the leads. You can easily make one of these your own.

Early Start Important

Turn to the big advertisement in this issue, and clip the entry coupon, write your name and address on it, then bring it to The Standard office, where the manager of the subscription campaign will gladly explain the details. You may enter your name or that of a friend but only one entry coupon for each participant.

It is advisable to start at once, for subscription money earns twice as many extra credits now as later in the campaign. It will pay you to make up your mind quickly, for there are hundreds of subscribers to be had for the mere asking. Get your first subscription today and ride home in your own automobile on December 23, or enjoy a trip to Europe or $600 cash to do with as you please.

You will never regret the time spent in this campaign, for you will be richly rewarded for your efforts. Everyone wins. You can win. If you enter you must win, as there can be no losers in this campaign.

BAKER TELLS HOW U. S. CAN ADVANCE PEACE OF WORLD

Boston, November 17.—Newton D. Baker, Secretary of War under President Wilson, today asserted the United States should take steps to preserve the peace of the world by exercising its power as a creditor nation.

Baker, speaking at a Boston Chamber of Commerce luncheon on "The Debts of a Creditor Nation", advocated a policy of refusing to sell products necessary to war to aggressor nations that have subscribed to arbitration treaties; urged that this country during the next session of Congress enter the World Court, and said debtors should be permitted to pay their debts to America by an exchange of products.

He advocated the revival and passage in the Senate of the Capper resolution. This would set up as this country's policy a refusal to lend its benevolent neutrality as a market for the products needed in waging war to aggressor nations that have agreed by treaty to submit differences to arbitration.

Baker urged entry into the World Court which he described as an institution obviously right and just and said such action would be an inspiration to the cause of peace throughout the world.

Debtors of this country, he asserted, should be permitted to pay in the same way as this country repaid its creditors in Europe in 1790—through an exchange of products. He opposed the hindrance of such exchange by the erection of tariff barriers.

In beginning his address, Baker said that he spoke simply as a business man and a lawyer to discuss problems with business men with no thought of politics in his mission.

Touching upon the question of tariff, Baker said the change in the status of the United States from a debtor nation to a creditor nation, with the rest of the world owing it the largest debt in history, had imposed great obligations upon it. He said that if the United States expected the rest of the world to pay it the $20,000,000,000 debt owed the United States, the latter must permit its debtors to exchange their products with it.

He said that he hoped the next Congres would effect a horizontal reduction in tariff rates.

He said our capitalistic system should be sufficiently flexible to adjust itself to changing economic conditions and that the United States must set its economic house in order so that the people will not need to look toward Russia to find a contented people, even if they are poor.

He refered humorously to our intercourse with the League of Nations, saying that we appeared to "be getting along nicely" with the League. He said we had two Consuls at Geneva, one of whom sits in "unashamed" at the League sessions. "However," he said, "I should feel more honest if the United States at least paid its share of the rent for the buildings in Geneva".

The Red Cross Quoto Lacking Come Again

As far as collections are concerned, Sikeston has almost "gone over the top", in the current Red Cross Roll Membership Drive, but the number of memberships in the National organization is far short of the quota, 700. In order to bring that number to the minimum figure mentioned, F. E. Mount, County Chairman, suggests that a special effort be made to secure 300 addition $1-memberships this week and next.

In many instances subscribers during the drive gave from $5.00 to $100, applying $1 to their membership cost and giving the balance as a donation. As a result the Sikeston Chapter treasury benefits accordingly, but to show the proper spirit of appreciation for the work of the National Chapter in this and surrounding districts last year, and in 1927, officials are anxious that full quota of memberships be reached. Workers and captains of the drive point out that those who were missed in the first visits last Thursday and Friday could easily bring the Sikeston quota up to par and over. A special appeal is being made to them in the following letter from Mr. Mount, to please bring or mail their $1.00 membership to any person connected with the drive, or to H. E. Dudley, Secretary or to C. C. White, County Treasurer.

Mr. Mount's statement follows:

It certainly is gratifying and I very much appreciate the ready response by our people in contributing so liberally to our local Chapter of the American Red Cross. To date our local people have been very generous in the giving of their means and at the rate we are yet going we will be able to show a greater contribution than at roll call time last year. However, we are running so much lower in membership that it is just a little humiliating.

Especially when we take into consideration that only a year ago the National treasurer was so liberal with us just at a time when we most needed their assistance. I really think we should feel grateful enough to show our appreciation by meeting the requirements or the goal set for us in memberships by the National Chapter, which is eight hundred fifty memberships for Scott County.

If our workers have by accident or otherwise overlooked any who are willing to enroll at the small cost of $1, won't you be kind and courageous enough to either hand this amount to me or to Harry Dudley, our County Secretary, or to C. C. White, our County Treasurer? Or if you live in any other part of the County, get in touch with the officials of your local jurisdiction and make your contribution to them. It will certainly be appreciated, and you can't carry a better insurance policy against hunger and cold for many times the amount. Last Sunday morning I met our fellow townsman, W. P. Lindley and he immediately caught sight of my button and said to me: 'Your solicitors missed me and I just went 'round and gave them my dollar anyway as I wanted to continue as a member'. Now folks, that is the spirit. Mr. Lindley evidently has two suits of clothes as he said he had changed and had forgotten his button and did not want to go on to Sunday school without one, so he borrowed one from Mr. White.

How it would lighten the burden of your chairman and the workers if we just had about one-sixth of our population as game and courageous as our fellow citizen, W. P. Lindley. One little girl, Alma Dye, gave Harry C. Young a penny and asked that she be given credit for this as her donation. Who will volunteer to buy that little girl a membership card and a button?

We can't all be rich, but we can all get hungry and cold. Come forward folks like you were going to an old-time mourners' bench and let's do our full duty to this noble cause by bringing Sikeston's quota in membership to its full 700. I believe you will do it.—F. E. Mount, County Chairman Red Cross.

JURY REACHES VERDICT ON FOURTH ATTEMPT IN SCOTT COUNTY HEARING

Benton, November 18.—The E. C. Robinson Lumber Co. of Charleston was awarded a verdict of $287 by a jury in Circuit Court here Tuesday in a suit against the Johnson Construction Co. on a lumber bill in 1930. The construction company was working on the levee near East Prarie at the time the lumber was said to have been purchased. Officials of the construction company said they never received the lumber. The jury reported three times that it could not reach a verdict but each time Judge Frank Kelly sent it back and the fourth time they came to an agreement, nine of the jurors signing the verdict.

IN MEMORIUM

In memory of our dear husband and father, who passed away one year ago today, November 19, 1930:

Try as we will, we can't understand,
Why Nature has treated us so.
It's just a small year,
Since Dad was here,
And we wonder why he had to go.
Since he has gone we often recall
What a blessing we had, and we sigh,
For we know future years,
Will often bring tears,
As once again we bid Dad goodbye.

Wife and Daughters.

In loving memory of my dear father who was called home one year ago today, November 19, 1930:

Sad and sudden was the call,
Of one so dear and loved by all,
Honorable and upright in all his ways,
Faithful and true to the end of his days,
A loving father, gentle and kind,
What beautiful memories he left behind
For all on earth he did his best,
Until God gave him eternal rest.

Mo. Pac. Refuses to Cooperate With City In Granting Switching Privilege On Spur Track

The Missouri Pacific Railroad thru its representative C. C. Chapman, Poplar Buff, refuses absolutely to cooperate with the City of Sikeston in granting switching privileges on the spur which passes the Municipal Light Plant. The refusal was made this week by Mr. Chapman, even though one-half of the track in question is located on City property.

City officials and members of the Board of Public Works have refrained from giving public utterance to the question of obtaining switching privileges, and early this summer placed the matter into the hands of a Council committee for amicable settlement. Only in rare instance would the switch be used by any other railroad except the Missouri Pacific, but two instances in the recent past have brought the necessity for switching rights from the Frisco Lines, prominently to the fore.

In one case, the Missouri Pacific Railroad waited approximately ten days before switching a car of fuel oil from Frisco to the Missouri Pacific tracks. In another case it required approximately seven days. Delays are sometimes expensive, and might easily cause a critical situation at the Municipal Plant through shortage of fuel oil.

Although Mr. Pepper extended the usual courtesy of taking up this matter with the proper officials, first in Sikeston and then through the Poplar Bluff district office instead of bringing it to the attention of "higher ups", Chapman has intimated that he would request a meeting of the Board of Public Works at which he "would bring pressure to bear" to have the matter dropped.

In view of the fact that the Missouri State Highway Department, the International Shoe Factory, Weltecke Lumber Company, Mill B, and Robinson Lumber Company have switching privileges, and in view of the fact that the Missouri Pacific spur is partially located on City property, City officials believed that the matter of merely granting switching rights would be easily obtained.

On June 1 a letter from Dan G. Pepper, Superintendent of the Board of Public Works, to the local agent, J. E. Robinson, requested that local railroad property be served by the local plant. The letter was ignored.

Another letter by Mr. Pepper, dated October 15, requested data relative to switching facilities, as follows:

"Please arrange to see us immediately so that we can determine your right-of-way line adjacent to our electric light plant building, and help us stake off a siding on our property.

Your siding now is on part of our property and it will be necessary for you to move these tracks and part of the loading platform, so that we can build a track of our own.

We would also like to have you submit to us a price on installing for us a two-car switch, you furnishing the rails and ties, also with us furnishing rails and ties.

We want this information no later than November 1, 1931.

This letter was also ignored.

In the latter instance, J. E. Robinson, local agent, passed the information contained in Mr. Pepper's letter to Mr. Chapman, superintendent.

The request of October 15 was repeated in a note dated November 9, in which Mr. Pepper writes:

"On October 15th, we wrote you a letter asking for information not later than November 1, 1931, and you have not granted us the courtesy of a reply.

"Mr. Robinson, in my recent conversation with you, it was explained by you that the letters had been forwarded to your superiors and we feel that you have done your part, but request that you get us a reply without further delay.

"This attitude on the part of the Msisouri Pacific does not invite business and is against the ethics of any reliable company, and I trust that it is only an oversight.

Very truly yours,
BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS,
Dan G. Pepper, Supt.

Mr. Chapman visited Mr. Pepper last Monday, November 16, and in so many words, informed the local man that Sikeston would not get a track, or switching privileges. Chapman stated that he had influential friends to block any move to get one, and quoted the Poplar Bluff situation where, he claims, the railroad company has a man on the board, and got what they wanted. He left the definite impression that a spur would cost $15,000, whereas it is a matter of common knowledge that the spur could be built for a few hundred.

Mr. Pepper praised the attitude of Mr. Robinson, who has done everything in his power to co-operate, and to give Sikeston what it asks. Chapman was advised that the attitude of the Missouri Pacific would not invite business, and was against the ethics of any reliable business concern.

QUILT EXHIBIT BY CO-WORKERS TUESDAY FAVORABLY RECEIVED

The annual quilt exhibit, bazaar and tea sponsored by the Co-Workers of the Methodist church at the home of Mrs. Jennie Sikes Tuesday afternoon was well attended, netting the group approximately $50.

Two quilts which attracted an unusual amount of attention were exhibited by Mrs. Harry Sharp. One a coverlet made of hand-dyed yarn, and figured in blue and white was made in 1845. It was monogramed "I. N." by Mr. Sharp's great-grandmother. The other was made by Mrs. Jane Watkins, great-grandmother of Mrs. Sharp in 1819. It was peculiar and interesting in that the spread carried a center design, a circle enclosing 22 stars, one for each of the States at that time. It was finished with a ruffle with a hand-turned hem, and is yellow with age.

A pair of mittens made by Martha Eastwood, mother of Mrs. Emelia Smith for the latter's husband in 1876 were exhibited, as was a hook rug made of old clothing by Mrs. John Young. Coloring in the latter piece of work was exceptional.

The house was beautifully decorated with 'mums'. The table in the dining room contained a centerpiece of Maderia cloth and a center decoration of chrysanthemums. Mrs. Alfred Sikes and Mrs. C. D. Matthews, Jr., poured.

The following program was rendered:

Vocal solos—"Cradle Song" by Kreisler and "Sally Roses" by Bostelman—Mrs. H. E. Reuber

Piano duets—"Hungarian Dances" by Brohus—Mrs. O. T. Elder and Mrs. F. W. Van Horne

Vocal Solos—"Indian Dawn" by Zamemecnik, and "Ma' Lindy Lou" by Strickland—Mrs. L. L. Conatzer

Reading—"The Land of Beginning Again"—Mrs. Oscar Carroll.

Musical readings—"Trees" by Kilner and "Grandma Pays the Bill" by Ryckoff—Mrs. Moore Greer

LAND SALES CONTINUE TO INCREASE OVER 1930

St. Louis, November 17.—With a sales record of nearly twice that of the first nine months of 1930, Wood Netherland, president of The Federal Land Bank of this city, told the representatives of 70 farm loan associations from eastern Missouri territory that there is a demonstrated growing demand for farms in Illinois, Missouri and Arkansas. "During the first nine months last year the bank and the national farm loan associations of this district sold farms for a total valuation of $407,000 and this year the total has already reached $934,000. Last year we thought we sensed an increased demand for farms, but it was very slight compared to what we have experienced this year.

"Farm prices are in about the same position as prices of wheat and cottoh a few weeks ago—below the cost of production. Actualy, farms can still be purchased at less than the cost of clearing, fence and erecting the buildings, and when prices are that low, they cannot remain there long, not when there are thousands of people in the towns and cities deciding that the farm is a better place to live and make a living than their present habitats".

Only two days left to see the Majestic range demonstration at Dempsters.

Mrs. B. F. Chambers and son visited Mrs. Chambers' mother, Mrs. W. R. Johnson, at Aid, Mo., Saturday.

N. M. Cobb of Bloomfield was a visitor for a short time Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Will Ellis. His condition has not improved very much.

TWO 4-H CLUBS ORGANIZED AT PARMA LAST TUESDAY

A Sow and Litter Club with an enrollment of approximately 17 boys was organized with Professor Jump as the local leader. The boys will begin keeping their records some time after the 1st of December. Plans are being made for each of them to secure a sow and the necessary place in which to keep her.

Baking Club was organized among the girls with Mrs. Floyd Gale as the local leader. The girls will begin work within the next few days. There is also to be organized a Garment Making 1, and a Garment Making 11 Club as well as a Poultry Club.

The boys and girls of Parma are enthusiastic about Club work, and the ladies, parents and teachers of Parma are to be congratulated upon their help and encouragement.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Harrell of Chickasha, Okla., stopped overnight Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Schroff, enroute home. Mr. and Mrs. Harrell attended funeral services for Mr. Harrell's father in Omaha, Ill., last Sunday.

Jefferson Potlocks and wife were in Bounding Billows Saturday with several of their children. Jeff said all the rest of them wanted to come along, but they had to stay at home and look after the baby.—Commercial Appeal.

C. OF C. HOLDS BOOSTER MEETING

A group of fourteen representative business men representing almost evrey line of retail merchandising in Sikeston met as a called committee of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, Del Rey Hotel, to discuss plans to boost Christmas business, and to consider ways and means of securing special lighting effects in the downtown district during the holidays.

Several plans were discussed, including one to advertise Sikeston as a trading center in nearby newspapers over the signature of the Chamber of Commerce. Another speaker developed the thought that the free "gold" idea carried out last year was worthy of repetition. Various schemes of prize drawings, bargain and sales days, and direct advertising appeals were discussed. A committee was appointed by Lyle Malone, president, to consider every possible scheme and method and to report to the larger group within the next week. Ernest Harper heads the smaller group, and will be assisted by Nathan Yoffee, Gene Potashnick, Bill Foley and Benny Topper.

The Chamber of Commerce group was unanimously of the opinion that some plan should be worked out whereby business streets would again be decorated during the holidays. This matter will soon be placed in the hands of a special committee to be announced later through both Sikeston newspapers.

Only two days left to see the Majestic range demonstration at Dempsters.

COURT REDUCES RATE FOR FOOD FOR PRISONERS

Poplar Bluff, November 17.—Butler County prisoners will have to live on rations costing 60 cents a day, beginning January 1, it was decided by the county court yesterday just before the close of the days business.

The court decided that 75 cents a day allotted for feeding prisoners in the county jail is too much, and that the cost must come down. A reduction of 15 cents per day on each prisoner was decided upon.

So far as is known here, Butler county will be the only county possibly in the State with allowance of less than 75 cents per day for board for prisoners. The federal government, which is using the Butler County jail as a federal jail, makes a standard allowance of 75 cents per day.

Feeding prisoners is a duty of the sheriff, who employs a deputy to transport the food to the court house and to supervise prisoners during meal hours. It is presumed that the quantity of rations provided for prisoners will have to be reduced in accordance with the allowance.

Another expense reduction decided upon by the court recently was to eliminate $50 per month jail guard allowance which the sheriff has been receiving for a number of years. That was the only regular pay which the sheriff received from the county, the rest of his salary being in fees.

It is with sincere regrets that we heard of the death of Mrs. Henrietta Hall, wife of Silas Hall of the Matthews vicinity, which occurred Tuesday morning of this week. This splendid woman has been afflicted with cancer for the past two years and suffered untold agony before death came to her relief. She was a frequent visitor to The Standard office and we learned to regard her with great respect and were always sympathetic and encouraging. As there was no chance for her recovery, it was a blessing that her suffering was ended.

The chilly winds of November have arrived which reminds us that perhaps we were not just as appreciative of the splendid fall that the good Lord has sent to us as we should. No better could have been wished for up to Tuesday afternoon when a light rain fell with a threatened change in the weather.

Folks from Sikeston who attended the Legion meeting at Kennett recently were not at all pleased with the meal set before them for which a charge of fifty cents was made. Several have been ill from eating of the food. Next year the Legion is to hold their reunion in Sikeston. The local Post, of course, will be in charge of the program, but it should be the duty of every individual to assist the Post in making this meeting the outstanding one to date. Sikeston has a number of noted cooks who could join and prepare a feast that would be thoroughly enjoyed and the cost would be at the minimum. This event is a year off, but there is no better time to begin plans than now.

We were rather surprised at the attitude taken by Missouri Pacific officials at Popar Bluff when application was made for switching privilege over their tracks to the Municipal Light and Power Plant. Several letters on the subject were sent to the officials but up to Tuesday afternoon, they were treated with silent content—just the public be damned attitude of years ago. When small underlings refuse to even answer business communications, then the matter should be taken up with President Baldwin at St. Louis, who will say yes or no p. d. q.

One of the greatest temptations that has come our way in many a day was at the Armory dance Monday evening when we were an interested spectator for a short while. A very splendid young woman asked us to dance with her just a few rounds, and when we hesitated, we were lost. And if we had gotten out on the floor with her, we would probably have been lost or crippled. Then, again, we knew the Missus was home finishing a quilt to keep us warm this winter—and we were afraid.

The Standard has hesitated for a long time to put on a contest of any sort, but as the time has come for a national audit of our list in order to verify our subscription list with both local and foreign advertisers, we had the opportunity to hook up with the gentlemen in charge of the contest and took advantage of same. The Standard is pledged to make good all prizes offered which should be sufficient guarantee that this contest will be strictly on the square. DAY BY DAY WITH GOVERNOR PATTERSON

If there is any virtue in having a multitude of doctors and remedies to cure our ills the thing we call business depression would soon be only an unhappy memory.

President Hovoer has now offered another panacea, his latest, after all his other prescriptions have failed.

It is in brief for the government to set up a loan system by which an era of home construction may be entered into by the people for the partial relief of the unemployed.

Mr. Hoover thinks by making it easy for the people to borrow money to build homes and engage in our building enterprises, that jobs will be found for many of the jobless and more money will be put into circulation.

The first thought which occurs in connection with the above proposition of the president is how far and fast we are moving in the direction of government control in the affairs of the people. It will not be long if the present movement continues before the men who created our government would not recognize their handiwork, could they return to life and view the great changes which have occurred and those that are proposed.

The drift towards centralization and absolutism has set in and the tide is running strong. Perhaps no single hand can stay it.

The next thought which comes to mind and naturally suggesting itself is the confused state of mind of Mr. Hoover who has either been deceiving himself, or has assumed the people have become so gullible that they will catch at anything promising relief. If we think back for a moment we can see how true this is.

The president first proposed with a blare of the publicity trumpets, and with the stage all set at Washington that now was the time for the government to begin great works of internal improvements by which thousands would be put to work. Supplementing what the government was to do, big business promised its co-operation, and all this was handed out as the great scheme to relieve the depression. It all went up in smoke. Nothing came of it. Instead of entering into a vast construction program, the president is now for cutting expenses to the bone. Big business went home from the meeting at Washington and began not to extend its work, but to reduce salaries, cut down the number of its employes, and curtail operating costs at every possible point.

Next came the moratorium which was ostensbily to aid Germany but really to protect huge American investments in that country. Following that is the present idea of home construction accompanied by beautiful sentiments about home and its meaning to the people, to all of which everybody will agree.

The proposition of entering into an era of general building, and particularly home construction, when boiled down is for the people to do what the government has failed to accomplish. It is an invitation for them to go further in debt, at a time when economy is being otherwise preached from the housetops, and the people are already loaded down with mortgages and taxes on their property.

These facts are lost sight of or ignored. Then, too, thousands of homes all over the country are today unoccupied. Apartment and office buildings are only partially tenanted. It is a fine thing to relieve unemployment but it cannot be acomplished in the way suggested by the president.

His scheme is impractical and under the circumstances absurd.

It would have been the part of wisdom on the president's part if he had tried to prevent unemployment, rather than in now proposing unworkable schemes for its relief. He should have foreseen some of the results of the present high tariff bill, which has curtailed our trade abroad and stagnated busines at home, throwing millions out of their jobs.—Commercial Appeal.

MANY COMMON FOODS SUPPLY IRON IN DIET

Iron, which is essential to the formation of sufficient red corpuscles in the blood, is obtainable from a wider range of foods than most people realize. Liver has been greatly emphasized as a source of this important mineral, and many children have been told to eat spinach because of the iron it contained. Raisins, too, are frequently advertised as an especially palatable and easily obtained iron-rich food.

In response to many requests the Bureau of Home Economics, United States Department of Agriculture, has compiled a list of common animal and vegetable foods which are rich in iron. The amount obtained from any one food is small, says the bureau, and it is well to include liberal quantities of iron-rich foods in the diet.

Egg yolk heads the list. It is not only one of the best means of supplying the body with iron, but it also contains phosphorus and calcium, minerals needed to build bones, teeth, and other tissues. Next on the list come meats, particularly liver, kidney, brain and heart; also lean muscle of beef, veal, pork and lamb. Oysters and shrimp are mentioned among sea foods.

Several green-leaf vegetables share with spinach the distinction of being rich in iron. The list includes turnip and beet tops, chard, dandelion and mustard greens, watercress, kale, New Zealand spinach, and broccoli leaves.

The dried fruits are a good source of iron. Apricots, peaches, currants, dates, figs, and prunes all vie with raisins in this respect. The whole-grain flours or cereals are important, particularly wheat, barley, rye, and oats. Molasses ranks high. Sorghum and cane sirups are also mentioned. Many legumes are listed, both fresh and in the form of dried seed, such as limas, lentils, common or kidney beans, cowpeas, and common peas. Almonds, hazelnuts, walnuts, pecans, and hickory nuts also supply some iron.

Common colds in the poultry flock are often forerunners of flu, or infectious bronchitis, a disease which has caused heavy losses in recent years. It is more prevalent in fall and winter. Prevention of infectious bronchitis includes sanitary measures such as cleaning and disinfecting premises, isolating sick birds, burning or burying carcasses, and providing comfortable, roomy, well-ventilated poultry houses. No cure has yet been discovered for this disease. Congress has made an appropriation for study of its cause, treatment, and control.

WORLD'S LARGEST SOYBEAN COLLECTION IS HARVESTED

More than 2000 varieties of soybeans, comprising the largest collection of its kind in the world, are being harvested this year at the experiment farm of the United States Department of Agriculture at Arlington, Va. The soybeans were brought from Japan, China, Manchuria, Korea, and Formosa by W. J. Morse, who spent two years studying and collecting them.

Growing all these varieties at the Arlington Farm of the department is the first step in introducing new varieties in different regions of this country. Next year seed from these soybeans will be sent to experiment stations in various parts of the country for further testing. No seed will be available for general distribution, however.

Soybeans are being used in many experiments. In Japan the soybean is popular as a green vegetable. Many Japanese varieties are being tried in this country as green beans and the Bureau of Home Economics of the department is making cooking tests with different varieties as a green vegetable. In Manchuria the soybean is grown chiefly for the oil and oil meal which are made from it. About 30 varieties are commonly grown in the United States, but these are mainly for forage and grain. Soybean oil is being used to some extent in the manufacture of paint and other products which require a drying oil.

NIGHT AIR MAIL PILOT TURNS IN FIVE ALARMS

Kirksville.—For the fifth time in three years, Lewis Gravis, mail pilot sounded his plane fire alarm recently to save the lives of sleeping people in a burning house. Flying the night mail from Kansas City to Chicago, he noticed a dwelling ablaze and circled it with his Hornet motor wide open, remaining in the vicinity until he saw the occupants escape through the windows.

One-third of the farms in this country yield as much as $220 worth of timber a year. The annual farm forest crop is worth nearly $400,000,000.

Liver is one of the most important meats in respect to the protein and calories it furnishes the body, ranking with round and sirloin steak. Liver also contains all three vitamins. No distinction in food value is made between the various kinds of meat liver. Chicken liver is slightly higher in protein than the others.

CANNON CRITICISES BROADCASTING BAN

Washington, November 15.—The action taken by the Federal Radio Commission Friday in refusing to renew the license of broadcasting station KGEF, Trinty Methodist Church, South, Los Angeles, Cal., from which Rev. Robert P. (Fighting Bob) Shuler has made attacks to which the commission took exception upon individuals and religious organizations, was sharply challenged tonight by Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, who contended that the decision was revolutionary, and of nation-wide importance.

Bishop Cannon, who headed the Southern drys in the fight against the election of former Gov. Smith of New York in the 1928 presidential campaign, said that the commission did not stop radio broadcasts by Gov. Smith when, he said, the latter denounced prohibitionists as "intolerable bigots" who opposed him because of his religion.

The Bishop also said that the action of the commission would be applauded by the "baser elements of society". In his statement, he asked: "Has any officer or commission of our government authority to prevent Protestant ministers from denouncing on the radio the effort of the Romish hierarchy to destroy the eighteenth amendment by electing as President its obedient son, Alfred Emanuel Smith?"

SPEND $4,000,000 ON ADDED F-TO-M ROADS

Jefferson City.—Counties which can and will provide the State Highway Department with free right-of-way for farm-to-market roads will benefit during the coming winter in the expenditure of something like $4,000,000 that the department finds will be available for construction of that kind in addition to the regular program.

The $4,000,000 is a "windfall" that has accrued all through the present season by reduced prices for road building materials, and was reflected in the difference between the bids of contractors and the estimated cost of the construction they bid on.

To be exact, bids of contractors during the past year on contracts for construction of the highway system have totaled $5,250,000 less than the estimated cost of the work made by the engineers of the commission. That is the reason why there will be an extra $4,000,000 that can be expended during the winter months on farm-to-market roads.

On top of this $4,000,000, the commission and Chief State Highway Engineer T. H. Cutler have made contracts for $10,000,000 for winter construction, the stipulation in all cases being that local labor, where available, must be used, and that as little machinery be used as possible in order to provide employ for hand labor.

The Great Smoky Mountain National Park contains a giant mushroom weighing 12 pounds.

When making apple jelly flavor a few jars with mint and add vegetable green coloring. This is appetizing to serve with lamb.

State forest nurseries have furnished large number of black walnut seedlings for plantings on farms this year. In North Carolina 42,000 walnut seedlings were reserved for use of the National 4-H Clubs for spring and fall planting. In Caldwell County 85 club members planted 45 trees each last year. Records will be kept on the plantings which were partly financed by a local chamber of commerce. Foresters recommend that walnut trees be planted in rich, deep soil that is well drained. They are frequently planted in fence corners, field corners, ditch or stream banks, large openings in the woods, and deep pockets of soil about rocky outcrops in the field.

CAMELS are never parched or toasted!

FOLKS who smoke really fresh cigarettes made from choice sun-ripened tobaccos never have to give a thought to their throats.

That's because such fresh cigarettes retain natural moisture—and are gratefully smooth, cool, throat-friendly, mild.

Camels are the fresh cigarette—everyone knows that now—they're blended from the finest Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos that money and skill can buy.

We would never dream of parching or toasting these choice sun-ripened tobaccos—that would only drive off or destroy the natural moisture that makes Camels fresh in nature's own mild way.

The Camel Humidor Pack protects a fine cigarette fresh with natural moisture—it could do little or nothing to freshen a cigarette that is dried-out or factory-stale.

If you smoke for pleasure, see for yourself what freshness means in mildness and flavor—switch to Camels for just one day—then leave them, if you can!

AS I SEE IT

By I'm About Town

The claim that negroes are inferior mentally to whites has been broadcast more or less during the past fifty years. Those who made a business of demanding proof for common assertions have pretty well disproved this contention. We can let this wrangle alone, however, in favor of the following point. Negroes can teach white folks a thing or two about sticking up for their kind, keeping their mouth shut, and solving their own problems.

An instance comes to mind in the case of the fellow held in the city jail Monday. He had visitors from seven o'clock that morning until late that night. He had a percolator of hot coffee, sugar and good cream, food of the finest quality, and company. Some of the eats were probably borrowed from kicthens about town, but the point is that his cullud buddies did not turn high hat over night. They played the game.

The writer numbers among his friends several of the darker folks, but do you suppose one of the gang would as much as tell the truth as to why Jones was behind the bars. Not by a jugfull.

"Nassah, Mistah Art, I dunno just why for dey has him in de jail. Ain't foun' out myself".

We knew they were lying flatfootedly, but admired their ability to forget.

The writer is donating this space for additional appeal for $1.00 Red Cross memberships. J. Ernest Harper and the writer were appointed captains of Ward 1. The district was combed thoroughly by competent workers, but the Ward fell down on its membership quota. Right now while you're thinking about it, sit down and fold up a dollar bill, drop it into the mail addressed to Harper or Wallhausen, care of The Standard office, and let's get the agony over with.

Quite a few women were out of town last Thursday during the drive. Others were visiting, taking a bath, or powdering their nose when the workers called, and consequently couldn't answer the door. More of them referred the workers to hubby.

CORRECTION

In the Kroger ad, printed elsewhere in this section, tomatoes are quoted at 10 cents per pound, when it should have read: Two pounds, 25c.

Put the excuses aside for the time being, and let's have a flood of dollar bills to bring that Ward 1—the Silk Stocking Ward, if you please, up to a decent figure.

Thirty-seven bucks and only thirty memberships from one of the finest wards in the city is nothing to crow about.

This time of year is the beginning of a long night for the trees as they are now shedding their clothes preparing to rest and sleep until time to wake up in the spring and put on their new suit of green. Some of them, like humans, die in their sleep or are cut down to make room for other purposes that the Supreme Being wills.

Some talk has been going the rounds that more than one hundred Sikeston automobiles or trucks had been operating without having paid the 1931 city license or tax. The fact is: 702 paid and less than 50 have not. It is not the duty of the City Collector to tie up these cars, if they do not pay, but the duty of the Police Chief. If these delinquents had paid the money could have been used to advantage, and no one should be permitted to operate a car at all without license tags.

One of the menaces that should be abated is the one-eyed cars that you see so mnay of on highways and streets. It is hard to tell whether it is the right eye that is shining or whether it is the left eye. Every car driven with but one light should be taken in charge by patrolmen or police officer, and held until put in proper order to take the road without menacing lives in other cars.

By careful placing of salt on the National Forest ranges, forest officers get the livestock spread more evenly over the grazing areas. This helps to utilize all the available feed and to prevent overgrazing of meadows and other favored areas.

FIELD IS BEST PLACE TO SELECT SEED CORN

—Julian

The field is the best place to select seed corn for next year's planting, says County Agent Scott M. Julian. In the corn belt most farmers select their seed from the field, although in Southeast Missouri it is more the practice to select in the crib. In selecting corn in the field, ears which hang down should be selected because this tendency prevents water from running down into the ear and molding and rotting the grain.

Ears should be taken from stalks which have two good ears and it is advisable to select ears which are grown at the proper height on the stalks. Ears produced too high retard shucking and make the gathering more expensive. Seed corn should be stored carefully, and if possible hung out of reach of rats and mice. It is always best to nub and but the seed ears before planting. While proper selecting for seed for one year will not get all of the desired characteristics this selection over a period of years will show results, and is much better than merely picking out good ears from a crib.

Moisture stored in the kernels of popcorn is converted into steam when the corn is heated, and it is the pressure of this steam which causes popcorn to pop. Corn will not pop well if it contains too little or too much moisture, say cereal specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. Popcorn stored where it is in contact with the outside air usually will have the right amount of moisture for popping. If it is too moist exposure in a heated room will dry it out. If it is too dry sprinkle it lightly with water and leave it in a tight container for a day or two, until the moisture is absorbed. Corn pops best when the fire is hot enough to make it begin to pop in about one and one-half minutes.

MAGAZINE DESCRIBES FIRST USE OF ANESTHETIC, IN BOSTON, 1846

High up under the dome of Boston's Massachusetts General Hospital, far removed from the wards so that the screams of sufferers under the knife will not horrify the ward patients, is the Hospital's famed operating amphitheatre. Many a medical student dreads the operations he is priviledged to watch, frequently faints. But one day last week Dr. John C. Warren, Boston surgeon, led a group of surgeons and students (class of 1847) up the long stars, eager, hurrying.

For there beckoned an interesting experiment—surgery without pain. Dr. William Thomas Green Morton, 27-year old Boston dentist, thought it possible, had experimented to that end with either, a volatile, pungent chemical compound capable of producing insensibility. He had tried it on animals, on himself, then on his patients while extracting the roots of decayed teeth. Finally he had obtained permission from Dr. Warren to let him test his drug before an audience. One Gilbert Abbott, with a tumor on his neck, was to be the first trial.

At 11 a. m. the last privileged student hurried into the amphitheatre. Experimentee Abbott, fidgeting on the operating table, looked anxiously at the clock. Casual talk ceased, sudden silence prevailed as the minute-hand crawled past the hour, and Dr. Morton did not appear. "He and his anesthetic! Humbugs both, no doubt!" mumbled a doctor. It became five minutes past eleven, ten, then a quarter after. The patient stirred uneasily, Dr. Warren selected an instrument, advanced to the table—useless to delay proceedings any longer. As his knife poised for the incision, Dr. Morton, breathless, apologetc, rushed in. He held in one hand a curious globe-and-tube appartus.

In eager concentration, tensely expectant, the waiting group of surgeons and students watched whie the newcomer—a charlatan perhaps, a genius possibly—adjusted his peculiar inhaling apparatus to the patient's mouth and with tense composure adminstered his anesthetic. Veiled skepticism revealed itself when the patient reacted suddenly in wild exhilaration, but this exuberance subsided, relaxation took its place, then unconsciousness. Skepticism was routed, amazement paramount. Said Dentist Morton to Surgeon Warren: "Your patient is ready".

Dr. Warren began to operate, proceeded quickly, in five minutes had finished. From the patient came no cry of pain, no agony of distress, only slight movements, mumbled words as from one who stirs on the borderland of sleep . . .

"This, gentleman", exclaimed Surgeon Warren, "is no humbug".

Awake, Gilbert Abbott said, "I felt no pain".—Reprint from Time, Magazine.

How One Woman Lost 10 Lbs. in a Week

Mrs. Betty Luedeke of Dayton, writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it".

To take off fat easily, safely and quickly take one-half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—an 85 cent bottle lasts 4 weeks—Get it at White's Drug Store or any drug store in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the easiest, safest and surest way to lose fat—money back. N-7.

CENTRAL PREPARES FOR ANNUAL HOMECOMING FRI.

Fayett, Mo.—Central College is preparing this week for her annual Homecoming celebration, to which 15,000 alumni and former students in all parts of Missouri and additional thousands from other States have been invited. The Homecoming program, which will open officially with a student pep meeting Thursday night, will have as its climax the Central-Westminster football classic, to be played on Davis Field in Fayette Friday afternoon.

Only two days left to see the Majestic range demonstration at Dempsters.

A total of 5500 grade crossings have been eliminated on Federal aid roads since 1917, says the Bureau of Public Roads.

No More Coughs

Coughs can't hang on a day once you go after them with Bronchuline. Two doses of this dandy emulsion will loosen the most stubborn cough—while half a bottle will chase it right out of your system.

Bronchuline contains no chloroform—no narcotics of any kind. There's nothing in it to start a drug habit—and it won't upset your stomach.

But it will positively kill your cough. Any time it fails, says Galloway's Drug Store he or any other good druggist will be glad to give your money back. 3.

AS I SEE IT

By I'm About Town

Kennett Turner, manager of Senbaugh's Y Station, gave us a look see into the barbecue pit last Friday when eight nice juicy bits of pork were sizzling and sputtering over a bed of genuine hickory coals. Anyone troubled with a sluggish appetite need only smell the delicious aroma of hams being barbecued to experience pangs of real hunger. Ask Albert Humphreys for confirmation.

And we learn from Ruth McCoy that Campfire girls are not the same as Girl Scouts. Sikeston boasts of the latter brand of female scouters.

One of the best stories of the year is that connected with the $3.00 piece of blackbery pie devoured by Elmos Taylor, our genial city collector.

It seems that during blackberry season a farmer offered two gallons of fruit to Mrs. Taylor for 20 cents per gallon.

"No, guess I won't take them", Mrs. Taylor is quoted as saying. "You see I'm planning on going out tomorrow for some, and I'll pick all I want for nothing".

Tomorrow came. Mrs. Taylor and son, her father and Elmos' father went a berrying. They picked two gallons of fruit. The car broke down and repairs cost Elmos $37.70. He estimates that the piece of pie consumed last Friday cost him in the neighborhood of $3.00.

24 CONOCO MEN ATTEND ETHYL DEMONSTRATION

A district meeting of Continental Oil Company representatives held at the Del Rey Hotel dining room Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock, was attended by twenty-four men, who witnessed a demonstration of Ethyl gasoline staged by L. L. Wilson, of Kansas City, connected with the Ethyl Gasoline Corporation.

Mr. Wilson outlined in general terms the meaning of the word "progress" as applied to other lines of work, and finally applied the term to fuel for motors. He graphically described early attempts to remove "carbon knock" and "spark knock" and finally related the slow, experimental process by which Ethyl fluid was discovered and perfected. He advanced the idea that modern motors, and those yet to be developed to their highest possible state of perfection would turn more and more to anti-knock preparations.

Instead of merely quoting figures and facts, Mr. Wilson operated a small specially-designed motor which transfered its power output in watts, heat output in degrees Fahrenheit, and revolutions per minute in terms of meter readings. Thus "ordinary" gasoline performance, "fuel knock" and Ethyl gasoline performance was readily witnessed by his audience of dealers, station operators and district representatives.

These sociable gatherings are held frequently during the year at various points in the district. The next will be held in Poplar Bluff.

Those present included: J. B. Dickey, Distrcit Supervisor; L. L. Wilson, representative of the Ethyl Corporation; H. B. Morris and Chas. W. Copeland and J. O. Walker of Malden, Ed Slobaugh of Broseley, P. J. Geile and Lucius and V. J. Nesslein of Perryville, H. E. Blackburn and Gene Aufdenburg of Sikeston, W. J. Pleasant and Buck Holleff of Campbell, Curtis L. Priest, H. L. Chapman of Poplar Bluff, Ed Johnson of St. Francis, Ark., R. H. Kinnard of Malden, George Hebling, J. E. Jonas of Poplar Bluff, B. F. Brooks of Caruthersville, Ben R. Caldwell, J. M. Howard and Sam Boutin of Cape Girardeau.

NEW YORK, BIRTH PLACE OF TABLOID

Who? What? When? Where?

The man in the street is often well read but seldom well informed. He feels sure, although he has never troubled to get the facts that Robert Fulton invented the steamboat and that the illustrated newspaper which furnishes the bulk of his reading and which supplies the background for the dramatic Fox picture, "Sob Sister", playing Thursday and Friday at the Malone Theatre, was the invention of Lord Northcliffe, or some other English publisher.

And again the man in the street is wrong.

The illustrated daily newspaper was first published in New York City, in 1873, by David J. Crowly. Crowly, a man of far-reaching vision, saw the profit of enlivening the news of the day with copious illustrations. He outlined his program in his opening editorial and built his paper on the same sensational lines that pattern the present day tabloids. In 1891 Frank A. Munsey brought out the Daily Star and it was not till 1903 that the first English illustrated sheet. the Daily Mirror, appeared in London.

"Sob Sister", which tells of the romance of a girl reporter for a tabloid paper and a boy who is the ace news gatherer for a staid and conservative sheet, a romance tossed on the stormy seas of busines rivaly, features James Dunn and Linda Watkins.

James Dunn you will remember as the personable youth who made such a sensational debut in the Fox production, "Bad Girl". He received the praise of every critic and fan alike who saw his masterful performance.

Linda Watkins is the young Broadway star who was chosen as one of the three Fox debutante stars and makes her screen debut in this picture. The production was directed by Alfred Santell from the screen play of Edwin Burke who wrote the sparkling dialogue for "Bad Girl".

Thanksgiving

Just think of the possibilities for surprise by serving for dessert a turkey gobber made of ice cream, an ice cream roast turkey, or a pumkin. an ear of corn, a chrysanthemum, a football—with perhaps a few assorted and realistic fruits made of ice cream.

Ice cream in these forms will make the meal complete. They are such perfect imitations in form and color that they always create fresh interest and surprise—and especially for the younger folks. For additional suggestion ask for our list of ice cream moulds for special occasions.

Center bricks too are appropriate—rich vanilla ice cream, with the center design of colored sherbet. Center designs appropriate for November would be either a turkey center or a pumpkin center brick.

Don't buy water instead of oysters. Each year there are some unscrupulous oyster dealers who adulterate oysters with water. If oysters are bled almost white and bleached, with soft spongy flesh of little flavor and no salty taste to the meat, and if the liquor is thin and watery, they probably have been adulterated with water.

Try this: Place an unopened can of salmon in a saucepan surrounded by boiling water, to heat for 10 or 15 minutes. While this is cooking, prepare a boiled salad dressing. When opening the can of salmon, place a cloth over most of the can, make a small hole in the top to allow the steam to escape, and cut around the entire edge so that the fish can slide out without breaking on to a hot platter. Pour the hot dressing over the salmon, sprinkle with finely chopped parsley, and serve at once. Fresh salmon may be simmered and served in the same way.

Osnaburg is a strong cotton fabric well suited to various uses for household furnishings. It has a slightly irregular, coarse weave that gives it artistic charm and may be used natural color or dyed. For draperies, slip covers, shoe bags, and couch and cushion covers it is serviceable and inexpensive. Osnaburg has long been used in the south for cotton picking bags and work clothes, but recently its value in home furnishing has been recognized.

STILLS IN POSTOFFICE, POSTMASTER IS CITED

Leonardtown, Md., November 17.—Postmaster Anton Lang of Jarboesville, near here, today was cited to appear for a hearing on charges preferred following a raid on the postoffice, which netted two stills, a quantity of rye liquor, mash and nearly 200 bottles of beer.

Prohibition agents raided the postoffice last night and arrested Michael C. Zeliahski, found in attendance on the stills, which were located in a back room. Lang was not present and the citation for his hearing was issued by the dry agents today.

The stills, one of 250 gallons and the other 150 gallons capacity, were destroyed. The agents held 235 gallons of liquor and 192 bottles of beer as evidence and destroyed 1500 gallons of mash.

Linoleum, to give good service, should be laid over a smooth floor in such a way that it does not buckle. Clean it with a damp cloth wrung out of suds made with mild soap. Alkal. washing powders, strong soap, or too much water, will ruin even the best linoleum.

Comparatively unknown a few years ago, the cashew nut now rivals the walnut and pecan in popularity and may be bought in almost any drug or grocery store. Last year this country consumed more than 5,000,000 pounds of cashews. The cashew 'nut' is not really a nut, says T. Ralph Robinson, of the United States Department of Agriculture, but the seed of a fleshy fruit borne in clusters on a large evergreen tropical tree. Curiously, the seed is attached to the outside, at the lower end of the fruit. The cashew tree thrives in Porto Rico and other West Indian islands, and a few trees have fruited in Forida.

Vital Foods

IN these days when we are evaluating vitamins so ardently, it is valuable to know about inexpensive ways in which to obtain our full vitamin quota. Tomatoes have become famous for their vitamin content, and tomato juice is now fed to babies by the doctor's orders. Here are some delicious and inexpensive tomato dishes each of which will serve four people:

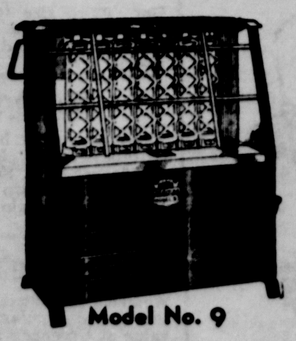

Macaroni and Tomato: Boil one-half package macaroni until tender, then drain. Simmer for ten minutes the contents of a No. 2 can of tomatoes with one-half bay leaf, two slices onion, one teaspoon sugar, and salt and pepper to taste; remove bay leaf and add to the macaroni. Costs about 25 cents.

Clam and Tomato Broth: Combine half the contents of a No. 2 can of clam broth with one 10 ounce can of tomato juice, and season to taste with salt and pepper, celery salt, tobasco sauce and one teaspoon lemon juice. Heat to boiling. Costs abcut 25 cents.

Stewed Tomatoes and Celery: Combine the contents of a No. 2 can of tomatoes with one-half cup diced, cooked celery, salt, pepper, one tablespoon butter and one teaspoon sugar. Simmer gently for a few minutes. Costs about 17 cents.

Baked Tomatoes and Peppers: Shred one green pepper and place with the contents of a No. 2 can of tomatoes and one teaspoon salt and a few grains of pepper in a buttered baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven until peppers are tender. Add one tablespoon of butter and serve. Costs about twenty cents.
